Baldwin Seth C.
From: Ballston, N.Y.
Last residence: Caldwell, N.Y.

Q. M. Sgt., 10th Regiment - Prior's - New York Militia
Service commenced August 17, 1812
" expired December 31, 1812
Forage Master, 4th Brigade, N.Y. Militia,
October 9, 1812 to December 31, 1812
CLASS OF 1810.

SETH COGSWELL BALDWIN

The son of Seth C. and ------(Cogswell) Baldwin, was born at Ballston, N. Y., and died at Glens Falls, N. Y., Feb. 25, 1848, aged 55. He read law with Col. Samuel Young of Ballston; began practice at Williamsburg, Warren Co., N. Y., but in a few years removed to Lake George, N. Y., and thence to Glens Falls, pursuing his profession to the last. He had been clerk of Warren County. Surrogate thereof, and the first Judge of its Court of Common Pleas. He was twice married.

Class of 1810 Dartmouth College

Sketches of the Alumni of Dartmouth College p. 147
Rev. George T. Chapman
Cambridge, Mass.
1867.
Seth Cogswell Baldwin

Born November 24, 1792. Settled in Caldwell, N.Y., and in 1850 is said to be dead. He married (1st), 1811, Asenath S. Beach, daughter of Zerah, of Ballston, N.Y.; no children. He married (2nd) Laura Hooker. He settled in Warrensburgh, Warren Co., N.Y., and died at Glens Falls.

Children—by 2nd wife:

1. Elizabeth
2. Mary.

These two daughters married two brothers, Anderson, one of whom was John, and lived in Brooklyn, N.Y., as a teacher.

FROM Baldwin Genealogy Vol. 1 p. 289.
Charles Candee Baldwin Cleveland, Ohio 1881

NOTE
From "The Descendants of Rev. Thomas Hooker, p.118, Laura Hooker is given as the adopted daughter of Levi and Elizabeth (Strong) Hooker. "They had no children but they adopted a child named Laura Berry, of Middlebury, Vt., and she was afterward known as Laura Hooker. She was born at Middlebury, Vt., 1802; married Judge Seth C. Baldwin. Levi Hooker died at Caldwell, March 20, 1844."

NOTE
From the "History of Warren County, N.Y. by H. P. Smith, on page 569, Seth C. Baldwin is given as "Supervisor" in 1844."