DIED:—On 5th inst., Julius R. Ames, aged 49 years.

Funeral from his late residence No. 3 Plain St.

Albany Argus, June 7, 1850
Albany Evening Journal, June 6, 1850

Mr. Ames for his retired habits and unobtrusive character was personally well known to but comparatively few of our citizens, and, as not unfrequently happens in such cases, he was held by those few in a correspondingly high degree of estimation. In true philanthropy of spirit, goodness of heart, he had few if any equals among us. The wronged, the oppressed, the unfortunate ever found in him a warm sympathiser and efficient friend. There rarely passes from among us one whose beneficent acts were more a matter of principle, or who has more sincere mourners among the oppressed, afflicted and downtrodden. (Communicated).

Albany Evening Atlas
June 8, 1850.
Class 1820  Julius R. Ames

Died: On the 5th inst., Julius R. Ames, aged 49 years. His residence 3 Plain St.

Albany Argus June 7, 1850

I could find no obituary. JRB.