

DIED: In this city, on the 5th inst, after a protracted illness. A. Stevenson Alexander, Esq., The funeral services will be held at the home of Wm. Alexander, Esq., on Main Street, at half past two o'clock, 6th inst. Relations and friends of the deceased are invited to attend.

By this afflictive dispensation, a large number of relations mourn the departure of an affectionate brother, and an extensive circle of acquaintances the loss of a friend true, generous and noble.

"Green be the turf above thee,
 "Friend of our earlier days.
 "None knew thee but to love thee,
 "None mentioned but to praise."

Rochester Daily Advertiser
 Rochester, N. Y.
 November 6, 1837.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the members of the Bar of the city of Rochester, at the Court House, on the morning of the 7th inst, Gen. Mathews was called to the chair, and Isaac R. Elwood was appointed Secretary.

Hon. A. Samson announced to the meeting the death of A.S. Alexander, Esq., and after remarks by himself and O. Hastings, Esq., offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is with feelings of the deepest regret, that we have received the information of the death of A. Stevenson Alexander, Esquire, who for several years past has been associated with us at the Bar, and by his gentlemanly and upright conduct and deportment, and his spotless integrity as a magistrate, a lawyer, and a citizen, had obtained our warmest friendship and respect.

Resolved, That we deem it proper in this public manner to testify our respect for his memory, and our sympathy with the friends and relations of one who in the midst of high prospects and high hopes of success and usefulness, is thus suddenly cut down at the commencement of his career in life.

Resolved, That in token of our respect for the deceased, we, the members of the Bar in the city, will attend his funeral, and wear crape on the left arm on that occasion.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions signed by the Chairman and Secretary of this meeting, be transmitted to the relatives of the deceased and published in the different newspapers of this city.

Isaac R. Elwood, Sec'y.

V. Mathews, Ch(n.

Rochester Daily Advertiser, Nov. 7, 1837

uCSLaf1825alexander-a-0001

ALEXANDER S. ALEXANDER, 1825, of Rochester, N.Y., was a member of the Adelpic Society.
Adelpic Catalogue 1830 (Died: 1837)

1825 ALEXANDER STEVENSON ALEXANDER

DIED:-In this city on the 5th inst after a protracted illness, A. Stevenson Alexander, Esq.

Rochester Republican
November 16, 1837