DAVID F. BARSTOW

The subject of this sketch was born in Litchfield County, Conn., November 6, 1798. He remained at home with his father, who was a farmer, until he was fifteen years of age, and during these years had received a good English education. He early in life conceived the idea of leading a professional life, and his natural literary tastes began to develop while he was quite young.

At the age of fifteen he entered Williams College, where he remained one year in a preparatory course. He then entered Union College from which he graduated in the year 1817. He began the study of law in Albany, N. Y., and in the year 1821 was admitted to the practice in the supreme courts of the State.

In the year 1824, he came to the village of Towanda, Pa., and entered upon the practice of his profession where he resided until his death, April 30, 1859.

Mr. Barstow was held in high esteem by his fellow-townsmen, and was honored by them with various offices of responsibility and trust at home, and for two terms was the county's representative in the State Legislature. Every duty placed upon him by his constituents was performed with integrity, and honor to himself and those whom he represented.

As an attorney and counsellor-at-law he was among the foremost of the bar of his county and State. Possessing a naturally strong mind, strengthened by a good classical education, as an advocate his opinions were listened to with the greatest deference and respect. He was a plain, unassuming man, void of concealment or disguise in the expression of his views, giving his opinions from honest and well-considered conviction. Not satisfied with the education of his younger days, he was a constant student of literature, and spent much time in literary research.

His attachment to home and family was a leading trait of character, and there his social and genial qualities were sunbeams of his life. He was an active, pious, and devoted member of the Episcopal church and stood prominent in its councils, and was a ready supporter of both church and school interests.

In the year 1841, November 10, he married Miss Amelia A., daughter of Col. Hiram and Elizabeth Mix, of Towanda. Her father was a native of Hudson, N. Y., and of New England descent. To Mr. and Mrs. Barstow were born three children—David Henry, Henrietta, and Caroline A. Barstow; all are living. The widow and mother is a lady of rare intellectual qualities, devoted to the best interests of society, to the Episcopal church of which she is a member, and especially to her children.

To the Class that graduated at Union College, in the year 1817

(or, if deceased, to the friend or relative who knew him best :)

Sir,—

It is the aim of the subscriber, in collecting the information asked for by the following questions, to obtain materials for a concise Biographical Catalogue of the Trustees, Presidents, Professors and Tutors of Union College:—of those who have received Honorary Degrees from it, and of all who have ever entered that Institution, whether Graduates or not.

That such a work would be interesting and useful to the Alumni, will not be denied; but whether it be practicable, will depend chiefly upon the aid which they shall impart. This circular will be sent to every Graduate whose residence is known, (or, if deceased, to some near connection,) and it is confidently expected that no one will neglect to return it in due time, with as full information as circumstances will allow:—some of the questions, indeed, may not be possible to answer with certainty; others not at all: still, it is hoped that no important facts will be withheld because of their narrowness.

Death has removed the twenty-four original Trustees, the first three Presidents, the early Professors and Tutors, and from eight hundred to one thousand of the Alumni of the College. Doubtless their friends and descendants will cheerfully contribute such information as may be necessary to illustrate the lives and services of the departed.

The subscriber desires every aid that may help to throw light upon the personal history of these concerned:—Obituary Notices; Biographical Sketches, Epitaphs, Funeral Sermons, Newspaper Notices of election to important offices or stations, Business Cards and Advertisements; also, copies of their Literary Works, Addresses, Sermons, Essays, Newspapers, engraved Portraits, &c. ; all of which will be deposited and preserved in an Alcove of the College Library, to be set apart for "Graduates' Works."

He also requests that all future entries affecting the answers which shall be given, he made known to him from time to time:—especially the deaths of Graduates, and that the usual obituary notices or funeral sermons published on such occasions, be sent with the announcements; as it is his purpose to publish these deaths hereafter once a year.
