

George Davis Postcard Collection1905-1940*UC0020

QUANTITY: 3 boxes
ACCESS: Open to research
ACQUISITION: Donation of Judge George Davis (see note)
PROCESSED BY: Margie Amodeo

Biographical Note: Judge Davis was a highly respected judge in northwestern New York. He combined his appreciation of the Adirondack Mountains with an interest in history, and his collections reflect this. His home was in Lowville and he had a seasonal camp near Beaver Lake. Judge Davis passed away in 2010 at the age of 91.

Scope and Content Note: The initial gift of a collection of over 200 postcards was received in 2005. The collection was later added to by the Adirondack Research Center. The current collection consists of over 1400 postcards. They date primarily from 1915 to 1940. They include images of sanitariums, cars, inns, cottages, clubs, boats, wildlife, and scenery from Lake Placid, Upper and Lower Saranac Lakes, Lake George, St. Regis Lake, Sacandaga Lake, the Saranac and Oswegatchie Rivers, Mount Marcy, Whiteface and the other High Peaks. In the interest of keeping the collection together, it also contains postcards from Utica, the Mohawk Valley, New York City and Washington D.C. and surrounding areas. The spelling and punctuation is an accurate representation of postcard captions. Anything in parenthesis has been added to make the finding aid a more useful tool for researchers.

Note: Although this collection is labeled with George Davis' name, there is a letter in the boxes from Arthur Newkirk donating postcards belonging to Trudy Porter, a relative of Eliot Porter. This discrepancy may need to be addressed at some point but it is unclear, at present, which postcards were donated by whom. Other notes and inconsistent dates state and suggest that many of the postcards were gifts of other donors.
