

CLASS OF 1813.

ABRAHAM BECK.

DIED.---In this town at 10 o'clock, on the 5th inst of a bilious fever, Abraham Beck, Esq., attorney and counsellor at law, and land agent. He was interred at 5 o'clock P. M., on the same day, with Masonic honors, in the burying ground belonging to the fraternity. A numerous concourse of citizens followed his remains to their "dark and narrow home." Thus prematurely have been extinguished the hope of friends, the expectations of the community, and the promise of future usefulness. St. Louis Register, Sept. 8, 1821.
