MARRIED: In Livingston, Columbia County, on Wednesday the 11th inst. by the Rev. Andrew N. Kittle, Mr. Lewis Benton, Esq., attorney at law of Catskill, to Miss Rachel Van Deusen, daughter of John Van Deusen, Esq., of the former place.

Albany Argus
Sept. 17, 1822.
LEWIS BENTON.

Lewis Benton, Esq., resigned the office of District Attorney of the county of Greene on the 8th inst. The judges of the county courts, in reply to Mr. Benton's resignation say: "Although we are in duty bound to accept of your resignation, yet we can assure you, that nothing would have afforded us more pleasure, than that you should have continued in the office which you have for several years executed with fidelity and ability to the public, and with honor to yourself."

Albany Argus
January 20, 1830.

LEWIS BENTON, 1819, a resident of Catskill, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society.

Philomathean Catalogue 1830
1819  LEWIS BENTON

Married Rachel Van Deusen, daughter of John and Lana (Fonda) Van Deusen. She was born November; baptised at Claverack December 18, 1803; married September 11, 1822.

Issue: Lewis; John; William.

Van Deursen Family
Vol. 1, p. 241
New York 1912.