

Charles Kane Lawrence is a descendant of John Prescott and Abby (O'Kane) Lawrence of Fort Edward, N. Y., whose parents were William and Prudence (Prescott) Lawrence, of Groton, Mass.

He married February 6, 1810, Susan Duffield, daughter of Dr. John Duffield and Margaret Debevoise (which Margaret was a daughter of Johannes Debevoise, who was a son of Carol, grandson of Jacobus, and great grandson of Carol Debevoise, the first emigrant of the name), resided in Brooklyn and had issue:

John D., born December 4, 1810, and for many years street commissioner of Brooklyn;

Archibald T., born September 4, 1812, now (1875) deceased;

Charles, born September 3, 1815;

Maria A., born September 25, 1816, married Martenus Bergen;

William, born February 5, 1820;

Margaret D., born January 7, 1822;

Cornelia W., bap. February 10, 1825;

Adeline, bap. April 30, 1827, married S. Walmen;

Emily, married Edgar Washburne.

The Bergen Family p. 344.
Teunis G. Bergen
Albany, 1876.

Johannes Debevoise was town clerk of Brooklyn, and a somewhat important person. He married June 15, 1749, H Hannah, daughter of Thomas Petts, of Flatbush, and died Nov. 19, 1792, having had issue Thomas, Charles, Margaret, and Hannah, all of whom died single, but Margaret, who married Dr. John Duffield, a surgeon in the American Revolutionary army. They were the parents of Susan Duffield, who married Capt. Charles K. Lawrence.

Annals of Newton p. 408
James Riker, Jr.
New York 1852.

CHARLES K. LAWRENCE, 1805, a resident of Fort Edward, was a member of the Philomathean Society. He died in 1829.

Philomathean Catalogue 1830.

Charles Kane Lawrence - AB - 1805

Charles Kane Lawrence ^{H. B.} 1805