SETW W. BURT

Son of Elijah Burt of East Longmeadow, Mass., and brother of David Burt of David Burt of the Class of 1806. He was born February 8, 1786, and graduated from Union College, Schenectady, New York, in 1810.

In parts of 1811 and 1812 he taught a select school in Northampton, Mass. Soon after he entered his chosen calling (the ministry) and was especially successful in doing pioneer work in the building up of new churches in the then "west"—the central and western parts of New York State.

FROM Life and Times of Henry Burt of Springfield.
Henry M. Burt & Silas W. Burt
CLASS OF 1810

SETH BURT

Children:

Rev. Mr. Burt was born at East Longmeadow, Mass; graduated at Union College, Schenectady, New York, July 1610; taught select school at Northampton, Mass. 1811-12; studied theology with Rev. Andrew Yates at East Hartford, Conn. 1812-14; licensed to preach by the North Consociation of Hartford County, Conn. Oct. 1814; ordained as evangelist and gospel minister by the Central Association of Ministers of Hampshire County, Aug. 1, 1815; commissioned by the Hampshire Missionary Society Aug. 16, 1815, to labor in the new settlements in St. Lawrence County, New York, and vicinity, in which region he was employed a few years; preached afterward in various places in Herkimer, Tioga, Broome, and Chenango County, New York, for twenty or thirty years; died at Norway, Herkimer County, New York. Jennet, the mother, was daughter of Josiah and Polly Smith of Norway, Herkimer County, New York. Their son, Wm. S., was captain in the 152d Regiment, New York Volunteers, for two years and three months, from 1861, in the war of the rebellion. Miss Amelia J. Burt's residence, Gray, Herkimer County, New York. Mrs. McKinney's residence, South Boston, Ionia County, Michigan. Mrs. Fairfax and Mrs. Herrick's place of residence, Alma, Wabaunsee County, Kansas.

FROM Genealogical Records of Henry and Ulalia Burt.

Roderick H. Burnham. 1892
CLASS OF 1810

SETH BURT

Seth Burt, A. M., Clergyman at Longmeadow, Mass.? and Norway, N. Y. died in 1853.

Prof. Pearson’s Scrap Book p. 363