Albany Concert.

The college glee, banjo, mandolin and guitar clubs gave their annual concert in Odd Fellows' hall at Albany last Saturday evening. A large and fashionable audience attended. The college musicians rendered their programme with unusual skill and hearty applause greeted each number.

The concert was given under the auspices of the following Albany committee: J. Howard King, '49; Isaac Lawson, '50; Henry T. Martin, '57; Rufus H. King, '57; Charles H. Peck, '59; William F. Fox, '60; James L. Bothwell, '62; William H. Shankland, '62; John E. Sherwood, '62; Amasa J. Parker, '63; Lewis H. Rockwell, '65; William Loucks, '66; Matthew Bender, '66; J. Newton Fiero, '67; Henry C. Littlefield, '67; Edward D. Ronan, '67; Martin Schenck, '69; Edward A. Corbin, '71; William J. Hillis, '72; Charles H. Mills, '72; William P. Rudd, '73; Newton Dexter, '73; James F. Barker, '74; Erastus D. Hill, '76; William P. Newman, '76; John A. Delehanty, '77; John J. O'Hara, '78; Charles M. Culver, '78; Lewis Cass, '78; Joseph D. Craig, '80; Miles W. Vosburgh, '80; Andrew H. Dougherty, '80; Frederick W. Cameron, '81; Cornelius E. Franklin, '83; Andrew McFarlane, '84; Nathaniel B. Spaulding, '85; Charles F. Bridge, '85; Edward M. Cameron, '87; George L. Flanders, '87; George C. Baker, '88; Charles A. Flanigan, '89; Arthur J. Roy, '93; Brayton L. Babcock, '93; Howard Pemberton, Jr., '95; Hubbell Robinson, '97; Willis E. Merriman, Jr., '98; John H. Gutmann, '98.

The names of the patronesses included many society ladies. The next tour of the club will be during the beginning of April, when they will make a trip to New York and play along the route at the principal towns.

Prof. Stoller's Thesis.

The last number of Bibliotheca Zoologica published at Stuttgart, Germany, bears the title "On the Organs of Respiration of the Oniscidae, by James H. Stoller." It presents the results of research work done by Professor Stoller last year at the University of Leipsic, for which he was given the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. At the request of Professor Chun, head of the Department of Zoology of Leipsic University, Professor Stoller's thesis was printed in the publication above mentioned.

This is News.

The following was found sandwiched among the intercollegiate items of one of our exchanges. How this slice of information ever got into print is a mystery:

"Union has formed a new debating society. The former one was discontinued five years ago when the regulation compelling each student to become a member of some literary society was removed."

The Preliminary Contest.

On Tuesday evening will occur Union's preliminary to select a representative in the New York State Inter-collegiate Oratorical contest. The league is comprised of Rochester, Syracuse and Union, and the speaking this year is to be under the auspices of Rochester. The preliminary will take place in the chapel and is open to the students.

The total number of officers of instruction, including university preachers, curators and library officers, proctors and others at Harvard this year is 466.

The Quad Entertains.

The Quad gave a delightful dance at Yates' boat house Friday evening, Jan. 26. Music was furnished by Zita and refreshments by the Psi U chef. Those present were: Miss Walsh, Miss Lathrop, Miss Hildreth and Miss Bothwell, Albany; Miss Beecher, Ballston; Miss Sahler, Saugerties; Miss Cleveland, Palmyra; Miss Pearson, Hudson; Miss Kellogg, Amsterdam; and from the city the Misses Rachael Yates, Dora Yates, Susan Yates, Button, Brown, Beattie, Paige, Price, Strain, Schuyler, Schoolcraft, Kingsbury, Miller, Horstmann and VanDeusen; and Messrs. P. B. Yates, Robert Yates, W. S. Yates, Prof. Opdyke, Bamber, Paige, Lawrence, Parker, Huntley, Hinman, VanderVeer, Stewart, Raymond, Hoyt, Foote, Sherwood, Price, Strong, Brown, S. Medbery, N. Medbery, Van Vlack, MacCulloch, Weed, Merriman, Stiles, Bothwell, Yawger and Enoch. The chaperones were Mrs. Strain and Mrs. Featherstonhaugh.

Correspondence.

CAMP WETHERILL, S. C., Jan. 31, 1899.

Editor of Concordiensis:

DEAR SIR: Through the kindness of Capt. White, a Union college man, a recent copy of The Concordiensis came into my possession. In it I noticed an article concerning my recent misfortune.

It is hardly necessary for me to say that the article is a very distorted account of the occurrence. I have not been given over to the civil authorities at all but have been in charge of my regiment. If the matter is of any interest to the students et Union, I will write briefly how the shooting occurred without going very much into detail.

When my regiment was ordered on provost guard duty in Greenville, I was among those chosen to go. I was stationed near the W. Va. camp and ordered to stop the shooting in the woods south of the camp and arrest the offenders. We were given ten rounds of ball ammunition.

These men, Mudridge and Hart, in defiance of a division order, had a revolver in their possession and began to fire it in the woods. According to my instructions I went to arrest them. They had already fired two shots before I came in sight. I called upon them to halt as soon as I saw them. Instead of obeying, one of them raised the revolver and fired two shots at me, and then tried to escape by running. I called "halt" twice more and then fired. Mugridge was killed and Hart wounded. I leave it to the calm consideration of any man. Am I guilty of a crime or was I simply obeying my instructions?

After a deliberate attempt upon my life, was I not justified in shooting?

My trial is over and I have not the slightest idea but that I was acquitted. It is a sad thing to have in one's memory the fact that in the discharge of your duty as a soldier, it was necessary to shoot and kill one of your countrymen. Still it should not cause remorse, only deep regret.

With best wishes for Old Union, I am

Sincerely yours,

JOHN B. MATTICE,

Co. K, 203rd N. Y. V. I.

A New Triangular League.

A new triangular league has been formed between Amherst, Williams and Wesleyan colleges and the season will be opened with baseball late in April with a game probably between Williams and Wesleyan. Williams and Amherst have also arranged to play the usual series of four games each with Dartmouth, so that the arrangement virtually provides for two leagues. Representatives of these colleges will meet in Boston, February 20, and will make final arrangements for a permanent athletic agreement between this trio of colleges.

Law School Election.

The class of 1900 of the Albany Law school has elected the following officers: President, William J. Maier; vice-president, Patrick J. Rooney; secretary, Homer L. Hunter; treasurer, J. Francis Hanlon; addressor, T. Harry Keogh; toastmaster, Walter Herrick; historian, Fred M. La Duke; prophet, E. S. Crannell; orator, Charles H. F. Reilly, ex-Union 1900; executive committee, chairman, Wm. Visscher; Charles V. Phillips, Charles R. Webber, Wm. R. Whitfield, Theodore Dimon.

Evangelistic Meetings.

The Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D., pastor of the Bethany Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, began a series of evangelistic meetings in this city on Thursday evening. These services are being held at the First Presbyterian church, at 3:30 each afternoon, and at 7:45 every evening, and they are to continue for two weeks.

This series of meetings is the result of the combined efforts of the churches of the city to get Dr. Chapman to Schenectady, and the crowds that have attended the opening meeting bear witness to the success of the effort. These revivals are not confined to one or two denominations, but represent a widespread movement throughout the entire city. Dr. Chapman is a most interesting speaker and it is hoped that many of the students will take advantage of this opportunity to hear him.

Necrology.

CHARLES LOUIS BEALE, '44.

Hon. Charles Louis Beale, one of the oldest and most highly respected members of the Columbia county bar, died at his residence at Hudson, N. Y., Jan. 30, 1899.

For several years past Mr. Beale had led a retired life and has been in failing health, but his death came suddenly. Mr. Beale was born in Canaan on March 5, 1824. He prepared for college at the Kinderhook Academy and was graduated from Union with the class of '44. While at college, he was a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity. He studied law at Kinderhook and in New York city, and practiced his profession in Kinderhook and New York from 1851 to 1866, in which latter year he opened an office in Hudson. He was a man endowed with rare ability and shone not only as a brilliant lawyer, but was known as the silver-tongued orator of Columbia county. His experience in his profession as his ability as a speaker recommended him for the position of member of Congress, which office he filled with credit to himself and his constituents of the old thirteenth New York district in 1859. He was chosen a presidential elector and he was registrar in bankruptcy for Columbia county under the old law during 1868. He was successively senior partner in the law firms of Beale & Barton, Beale & Duntz, the junior member of this firm being the present Republican district attorney of Columbia county, and Beale & Beale, the junior member of the firm being his son, Captain Charles F. T. Beale. Mr. Beale is survived by one son, Captain C. F. T. Beale of Washington, and two daughters, Miss Eloise Beale of Hudson, and Mrs. Hugh Bond of Baltimore, Md.

Magazine Review.

In the February number of the American Monthly Review of Reviews the editor seeks to apply the lessons of our national failures in the South during the reconstruction period following the Civil War to the present problems of a similar nature in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Phillippines. His deductions are interesting and instructive. He says: "The true way to restore the South to the Union after the war was to restore the South to its own people." The same principle applies today in the new territories just coming under our control. The editor warns us against a new type of "carpet-bagger" who is threatening to invade Cuba—namely, the franchise-grabber. A large proportion of space in this number of the Review is given up to editorial and contributed articles on the management of foreign dependencies. Sylvester Baxter contributes an interesting study of the Dutch rule in Java, and Dr. Daniel Dorchester makes a statistical exhibit of the recent drift toward colonial and protectorate governments.

Outing for February contains a delightful assortment of tales of sport, adventure and travel. The fiction is a tale entitled "Ma Blonde," a complete story by M. Gertrude Cundill. A wealth of beautiful illustrations and the usual poems embellish a most satisfying number. The editorial and record departments have received the customary careful attention by leading writers in their various fields.

IT IS most important that all those who intend to enter the intercollegiate athletic meets in the spring, should begin training as soon as possible. The contestants in both meets will be determined from the winners of the annual mid-winter and spring meets, and it is desired that every one who has ability in any event, should participate in both college meets, in order that the best material in college can be developed and brought out. It is necessary, at the beginning, that Union go into the work thoroughly infused with a determination to win. Only hard persistent training can put the men into good condition, and there is no reason why Union should not be successful in both intercollegiate meets if every man will do his part. Each man must be made to feel the importance of his individual effort, and each man should encourage his neighbor to do his best.

After a successful football season, Union should not allow her energy to lag. It would give the college paper the greatest pleasure to record a series of victories throughout the baseball season, and at the finish of each meet. It is far easier and more pleasant to record a victory than a defeat, and every man in college knows what the enthusiasm of the hour would be in the event of victory. We all, individually and collectively, have a duty to perform in order that victory may be realized. Let each one put his shoulder to the wheel and keep it there until victory is ours.

THE ATTENTION of the students is called to the action with regard to unpaid subscriptions which was taken at Monday's college meeting. There is $62 still outstanding on last fall's subscriptions, and the Advisory Board desires to have all of these old debts paid in so as to be able to start the year with a clean record. On Monday morning it was decided that unless all of this money is paid in by Monday, Feb. 13, the names of the delinquents will be posted on the bulletin board, and published in the next issue of The Concordiensis. It will certainly be a matter of regret if the plan has to be carried out, but such neglect as this must be dealt with summarily and the time has now come for action.

IN ANOTHER column will be found the baseball schedule which was ratified at the last meeting of the athletic board. Manager Gambee is to be congratulated for being able to arrange such a good series of games. He has done his part towards providing for a successful season, but the schedule cannot be carried through without money. If enough money cannot be raised to guarantee the present schedule the number of games will have to be curtailed. It will be noticed that six games out of the fourteen are to be played on the campus, giving the students an opportunity to see some of the best games of the season. It seems as if every man ought to be willing to support the management, and we hope that every one will contribute liberally.

President Raymond will be one of the speakers at the session of the State Y. M. C. A. convention, to be held in Rome, N. Y., on Feb. 18.

Personals.

The Chi Psi's entertained their local alumni at a smoker on Tuesday evening at the lodge.

William C. Bamber, ex-1900, has taken a position with the General Electric Company in this city.

St. Elmo Goetz, ex-1900, at present studying dentistry in New York is seriously ill with diptheria.

James W. Veeder, '94, and Homer Strong, '98, both of this city, have passed the State Bar examination.

The trustees of Columbia University have adopted a resolution limiting admission to the Law School to college graduates. The change will take effect in the fall of 1903.

The property now owned by fraternities at Cornell is valued at $475,000; at Williams, $350,000; Yale, $300,000; Amherst, $200,000; Wesleyan, $125,000; Harvard, $125,000.

University of Pennsylvania presents to each member of the 'varsity football team this year a gold watch charm in the shape of a football as a souvenir. The subs receive silver ones.

Out of the 451 colleges in the United States, forty-one are closed to women. However there are 143 schools of high learning open to women only, which have 30,000 students. Thus 143 institutions are closed to men and forty-one to women.

Base Ball.

Although much of the time and attention of the college athletes is being given to basket ball and the track team, much interest is being shown in the preparations for the base ball season.

Union's prospects for a successful season are very good. Of course Thatcher will be missed in the box, but at all other points the team will be fully as strong as last year. With the exception of Thatcher all of last year's players are still in college and ready to compete with all comers for their old positions. It is hoped that the freshman class contains some men who will make competition worthy of the old players.

Captain Wiley expects to have the team commence practice next week, and at that time more candidates will undoubtedly appear. So far the following men have expressed their intentions of trying for positions on the team:

Pitchers.—Mallery, 1901; Edwards, 1900; Enoch, 1902; Yawger, 1902.

Catchers.—Hegeman, '99; Stewart, 1900; Parshall, Medical; Finnegan, 1902.

Infield.—Wiley, '99; French, 1900; Grout, 1901; Cook, 1901; Thebo, 1902.

Outfield.—Smith, '99; Lawton, 1900; Stewart, 1900; R. Robinson, 1901; Carver, 1901; Atkinson, 1902.

Manager Gambee has succeeded in arranging a fine schedule which will be carried out if the student body gives the team the necessary financial support.

The schedule follows:

April 19, with University of Vermont at Schenectady.

April 22, with Colgate university at Schenectady.

April 29, with West Point at West Point.

May 6, with Hamilton at Schenectady.

May 13, with Hobart at Schenectady.

May 18, with Middlebury at Middlebury.

May 19, with University of Vermont at Burlington.

May 20, with University of Vermont at Burlington.

May 24, with Hamilton at Clinton.

May 27, with Middlebury at Schenectady.

June 3, with Williams at Schenectady.

June 9, with Colgate at Hamilton.

June 10, with Hobart at Geneva.

June 17, with Williams at Williamstown.

Track Athletics.

Manager Bradford of the track team reports that arrangements have been made for the following meets:

Mid-winter meet, March 8.

Williams-Union meet, May 13.

Inter-scholastic meet, May 20.

Inter-collegiate meet, May 30.

The dual meet with Williams is to be held in Albany, and the others in Schenectady. The Mid-winter meet will take place in the gymnasium, and will determine Union's representatives at the Inter-collegiate Gymnastic contest which is to be held in New York city.

The following is a partial list of the candidates for the team:

Price, '99, Medbery, '99, Davis, '99, Huntley, '99, Hinman, '99, Hegeman, '99, Davis, 1900, French, 1900, Paige, 1900, Fenton, 1900, Merriman, '01, Weed, '01, Kline, '01, Hermance, '01, Gulnac, '02, Yawger, '02, Finnegan, '02, Shaw, '02, Hoadley, '02.

The fourteen Princeton men who played in the Yale football game last fall, have been presented with solid gold footballs, to be worn as watch charms. They are of 18-karat gold, with "Champions 1898" engraved on one side; on the other is the name of the player, with his position on the team.
