CLASS OF 1811

PETER T. CURTENIUS

Son of Peter Curtenius, a wealthy merchant in New York city, who owned many thousands of acres of land in Oswego county. He was also the owner of a large tract of land in Steuben township, Oneida county. He was born in New York City and always lived there. In 1804 he was a member of Assembly from New York; two years later he was appointed by President Jefferson United States Marshall for the southern district of the State, held that office until 1811, when he was re-appointed by President Madison, and continued until 1814. He died not far from 1817. His widow came to Whitesboro in 1818 with five children of her own, besides two of her late husband's by a former marriage. She purchased the Arthur Breeze mansion. Peter T. was a son by a former marriage. He never married and died in New York City in 1833.
