Gerrit Y. Lansing and Thomas Attwood Bridgen have formed a partnership in the profession of Law. Their office is at No. 366 North Market St. Albany, Nov. 1, 1816.

Advertisement in The Albany Argus Nov. 12, 1816.
CLASS OF 1813

THOMAS ATWOOD BRIDGEN

July 11, 1833. Thomas Atwood Bridgen died, aged 40.

Munsell's Annals of Albany     p. 268
Notes from Newspapers

THOMAS A. BRIDGEN, A.M., 1813, a resident of Albany, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathen Society.

(Died: 1833)

Philomathean Catalogue 1830.
MARRIED: On Wednesday morning last, by the Rev. Mr. Thomas, of Poughkeepsie, Thomas Atwood Bridgen, Esq., Surrogate of the county of Albany, to Miss Sarah Rivington, daughter of Mr. James Rivington, merchant, formerly of this city.

Albany Argus
September 3, 1824
Friday.