JOHN PALMER COX

Born July 27, 1794.
Died July 25, 1825 at New York City.

He was married to Emilie, daughter of John Vaché, a dealer in feathers and artificial flowers, at 28 Liberty St., where he also lived. Rt. Rev. John Henry Hobart, Bishop of New York, officiated at the marriage, which was in St. Paul's Church, New York City, June 1, 1817.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Cox did not return to Rhinebeck and lost nearly all of her property there which was sold and the proceeds diverted by the agent in charge.
