Eber Child

Eleventh child and youngest son of William and Mary (Heaton) Child, born in Thetford, Vt., July 31, 1798.
Married Nancy Taylor about 1828.
Mr. Child pursued his academic studies in Randolph Academy, Vt., graduated at Dartmouth College, N. H., and taught for a season in Groton Academy, Mass.
Studied theology at Andover Theological Seminary, was licensed and ordained as an evangelist, settled as pastor in Deering, N. H., afterwards in Calais, Maine, and in Byron, Genesee county, N. Y.
A portion of his active life was spent in promoting the moral reforms of the day. He was scholarly in his attainments, possessing a good knowledge of Latin, Greek, Hebrew and French, and had much reputation as an elocutionist. Personally he possessed warm social qualities, with sincere and earnest piety, and was deservedly influential among his acquaintances.
He died in Fulton, Wis., December 10, 1847.
