Editorial.

WE are glad to see that some attention is being given to the election of CONCORDIENSIS editors. Men should not be chosen to this office simply because they have a political pull. Furthermore all the men on the board should work. As it stands now the editor-in-chief and business editor publish the paper, while the rest of the long list of associates and assistants are mere figure heads.

A salutary effect would also be produced by having the work count as regular college work. This is the case in several colleges and the result is apparent both in the paper and in the college work of the editors. Now that this agitation has been started, it is to be hoped it will be carried out, and some satisfactory arrangement made.

At last we are in the midst of Senior vacation and our stay at old Union is now reckoned in days and not in months or even weeks. As we look back over the four years we have spent at Union we cannot but be pleased with the change that has occurred during that time. Yet there is still very much room for advancement. The friends of the college, Alumni, Faculty and students should do all they can in their own particular spheres to help on the movement and to place Union in the front rank of American colleges.

THERE is one recommendation we would like to make before we lay aside our editorial duties. Somebody should be authorized to take the minutes of the college meetings. We have published an account of them from time to time, but this is not enough. There should be an approved record kept of the proceedings so that in case a question concerning any matter arises there will be a means of settling it. A good arrangement would be to have the secretary of the Senior class act in this capacity.

***

It is indeed gratifying to see the names of Union's professors on the title pages of the books used in their department and in the publisher's catalogues. It is a mark of progress that should be noted and some recognition should be given those professors who in addition to the work of the class room assume also those of editing a text book.

INTERCOLLEGIATE FIELD DAY.

The eighth annual New York State Intercollegiate Field Day was held, May 30, with Hamilton College at Butterfield Park in Utica. About 75 Union men set out for Utica in a special car decorated with the College colors. Their hopes were bright and had the day been more favorable they would probably have been realized. But almost before the train left the station the rain began and continued well into the afternoon. The management was as bad as it possibly could be. The manner of starting the men was poor. The pistol used was not sure and the men did not know whether it would hang fire or go when snapped. While we do not wish to say anything derogatory to Hamilton it is a significant fact that that the starter and most of the judges were Hamilton men.

The following account is taken from the Madisonensis.

At 2:30 the regular games at Butterfield Park were begun. The hundred yards dash was run in three heats, the first heat being won by Mr. Purdy, of Syracuse, in 10 1-5 seconds; second by Mr. Gordon Hoyt, of Syracuse, in 10 1-2 seconds; the third by Mr. Baker, of Union, in 10 3-5 seconds. In the finals Mr. Purdy took first, Mr. Judson, of Hamilton, second; and Mr. Baker, of Union, third.

The second event, putting the 16 pound shot, was won by Mr. G. F. Wood, of Hamilton, distance 34 feet, 4 inches, with Mr. O. W. Wood, of Syracuse, second, and Mr. Mulligan, of Union, third. The pole vault was won by Mr. Pike, '94, of Rochester, who made 9 feet, 7 inches, breaking the intercollegiate record by 1 inch. Mr. Purdy, of Syracuse, and Mr. Taylor, of Hamilton, were tied for second place and divided the points, each taking two. The 440 yards was won by Mr. Strassenburg, of Hobart, with Mr. Fikes, '95, of Syracuse, second, and Mr. Mulligan, the man whom Union backed as a sure winner in all the dashes, as third. The rain was pouring fast when the men lined up for the mile walk and the track was in a wretched condition. The time was 9 minutes and 1 1-5 seconds, made by Mr. E. L. Tupper, '93, of Colgate; Mr. Bostwick, of Rochester, received second, and Mr. Mason, of Hamilton, third. The 120 yards hurdle was won by Mr. Ralsten, of Hamilton, who jumps in fine form, in 17 4-5 seconds, thus breaking the record made by Mr. Purdy last year. Mr. Pike, of Rochester, took second, and Mr. Chase, of Hobart, third.

In the 880 yard dash, Mr. Macomber, of Syracuse, won in 2 minutes 15 2-5 seconds, with Mr. Bryan, of Colgate, second, and Mr. Ostrander, of Hamilton, third. The running broad jump was won by Mr. Purdy, of Syracuse, who made 19 feet 11 inches; Mr. Welch, of Hamilton, took second, with Mr. Briggs, of Colgate, third.

In the running high jump another record was smashed by Mr. H. E. Wynans, of Rochester, who cleared 5 feet 7 inches, which was 4 inches better than the last Intercolgate record. Mr. Mulligan, of Union, took second at 5 feet 6 inches, and Mr. Bergen, of Union, third.

The two-mile bicycle race was most exciting of all. The field of entries was large, Hamilton had three men, Syracuse two, and Hobart, Rochester, and Colgate each one. At the start, Mr. J. H. Scott, '92, of Colgate, was unfortunate in breaking his machine, and dropped out. Mr. Benedict, of Syracuse, won with Mr. Gibson, of Hamilton, second.

Another record went up when Mr. A. E. Barnes, of Union, landed the 16 pound hammer 87 feet, thereby breaking the record of 82 feet 7 inches, which was held by Mr. Mead, of Syracuse. Another Union man took second, with Mr. O. W. Wood, of Syracuse, third. In the mile run Mr. Macomber, of Syracuse, won in 5 minutes, with Mr. Blanden, of Colgate, second and Mr. Olin, of Hobart, third.

It was half-past eight when the men in the 220 yard dash were off. A piece of burning paper marked the finish and the men could not be seen until within 10 yards of the finishing line. Mr. Root, of Hamilton, came in first, with Mr. Hoyt, of Syracuse, second and Mr. Baker, of Union, third. No time was taken.

The 220 yard hurdle which was postponed until Tuesday morning, resulted in a victory for Mr. Ralsten, of Hamilton. Mr. Pike, of Rochester, came in second, and Mr. Curran, of Hamilton, third. Colgate's representative, Mr. Risley, '94, should have had a place in the finals, in place of Mr. Pike, of Rochester, but was not informed of the race.

COLLEGE STATISTICS.

The following statistics may be of interest. They are based on the number of students in the fifteen most important institutions in the country five years ago, i. e., 1886-7, and at present 1891-2. The colleges from which these have been compiled are Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Michigan, Minnesota, Columbia, John Hopkins, Brown, Williams, Virginia, Lehigh, California and Wisconsin.

The total number of students in 1886-7 was 11,195, to-day the number amounts to 15,184, an increase of 6,887; or thirty-three per cent., which is a tremendous percentage, as is clear to every one. The rank of the first six colleges, with the attendance during the year 1866-7, will be given, then the standing of the first six colleges during the year 1891-2. In 1889, Harvard stood first, with 1,688 students; Michigan second, with 1,572; Columbia, 1,570; Yale fourth, with 1,134; Pennsylvania fifth, with 1,088; Cornell sixth, with 743.

Harvard still keeps the lead in 1891-2, with 2,658 men; Michigan, too, holds her place with 2,622; Yale takes Columbia's place as third with 1,724, the latter dropping to fifth place, with 1,539 names on the rolls. Pennsylvania moves up to fourth place with 1,764 men; Cornell is sixth, with 1,489.

In the total gain in five years Michigan leads with 1,050; Harvard second with 970; Minnesota third with 844; Cornell fourth with 749; Pennsylvania fifth with 675; Yale with 650.

The approximate percentage of gain for the fifteen colleges above named, changes their standing materially. It is as follows: Minnesota, 232 1-2; Cornell, 100; Wisconsin, 96; California, 84; Princeton, 75; Michigan, 65 3-4; Brown, 65 4-5; Pennsylvania, 63; Yale and Harvard each 57 2-5; Virginia, 51 5-10; Lehigh, 44; Johns Hopkins, 39; Williams, 223-5. Columbia stands last, having lost thirty-one students in five years, or 02 per cent. loss.—Madisonensis.

'93 GARNET.

At last this long expected book has made its appearance. It is very neatly bound, and the general make up of the book is excellent. It contains some good biographical articles, and several fairly good poems, the rest of the book is taken up with the list of students, the societies, the student organization and the grinds. Among the grinds we find some new ones, but most of them are new only in their application. The cuts are quite well executed, although some of the men and women are not well proportioned. On the whole, the book though inferior to the large and elaborate annuals published by some of the other colleges is very good.

The North college men defeated the South college men in a game of baseball Saturday, June 11, by a score of 16 to 11.

A SERMON A LA BURNS.

Come Dekes, Psi U's, and Delta U's,
And Alpha Phi's and a' that;
Phi Kappa Psi's, Phi Delta Thetas,
And Gamma Phi's and a' that—
Come heed a bit o' plain, blunt talk
Fra' one who's been through a' that.

Ye think ye're each the real elect;
Ye form yer cliques and a' that;
I say ye're simply just yersels—
Na more, na less for a' that.
For a' that and a' that,
Yer badges, grips and a' that;
Yer lives show plainer than yer pins;
Ye'll be yersels for a' that

Ye boast sa much about yer rank,
Yer history, and a' that—
A chain's no stronger than its link
And ye're the links of a' that.
For a' that and a' that,
Yer chapter's name and a' that—
A man's a man, whate'er his pin;
Ye're both yersels for a' that.

Ye think, because yer neighbor man
Wears not your pin and a' that
He's but a dunce, a cheat, a rogue,
A toady, "chump," and a' that—
But for a' that and a' that
Yer narrow spite and a' that—
A man's a man, whate'er his pin;
Ye're both yersels for a' that.

Ye think, because yer sister fair
Suits not your taste and a' that,
That she and all her sisterhood
Are weak, bold, silly—a' that.
For a' that and a' that,
Yer spiteful speech and a' that—
She doubtless thinks the same o' you;
Ye're both to blame for a' that.

And ye who wear no pins at a'
Whom they call "sore-heads"—a' that.
Why should ye boast, grow sour, or whine?
Stand up like men for a' that.
For a' that and a' that.

Their greetings, grips and a' that—
Be each a chapter to yersels;
Outstrip them all for a' that.

Shame, shame on all yer jealousies,
Yer slanders, plots and a' that.
Away wi' all such childish things!
Be men, and let go a' that.
For a' that and a' that,
Yer badges, grips and a' that—
Yer lives show plainer than yer pins;
Ye're still yersels for a' that.

Think not to make your badge a crutch
To help ye on and a' that;
Ye'll be whate'er you make yersels;
The world cares naught for a' that.
For a' that and a' that—
Fraternal help and a' that—
The time will come ye'll walk alone
And rise or fall for a' that.

Then let us pray that come it may—
Come soon, come sure and a' that—
That college cliques may better mix
With less of hate and a' that.
For a' that and a' that—
Yer brotherhood and a' that—
A man's a man whate'er his badge;
Be nobler men for a' that.—Syracusan.

Base Ball.*WILLIAMS 10--UNION 0.

One of the best games of the season, excepting perhaps, the one with the University of Vermont was the one played with Williams' on the Campus, May 27. The batteries were: For Williams' Roberts and Draper for the first part of the game and then Hollister went in to pitch; for Union, White and LaBelle. The following is the score with the positions:

COLLEGE MEETINGS.

A short college meeting was held May 20. Arrangements were made for making the entries for the Intercollegiate Field Day, and for sending the men to Utica. It was voted to turn the money collected for fixing the track over to the Athletic Association to help pay the expenses of the men who entered at Utica, and to levy an additional tax of 50 cents for the same purpose.

Another meeting was held May 27. The names of those who had not paid the assessments were read, and the reports of the committees connected with the Intercollegiate Field Day were received.

The first college meeting under the auspices of '93 was held Friday morning June 10. Vice-President Cordonez called the meeting to order. Speeches were made by next year's base ball and football managers. A partial report on the Field Day was made by the Athletic committee. A discussion was started concerning the election of CONCORDIENSIS editors. It was the sentiment that hereafter they be elected by competition. A committee consisting of Messrs. Hughes and Merchant of the incoming board with three others were appointed to see about making some arrangement with the faculty so that work done on the paper should be equivalent to a certain number of hours recitation per week.

Examination week.

Hunter and Williams have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Furbeck, Reddish and Trumbull have been elected to Sigma Xi.

Prof. Hoffman has a book ready to go to press on "The True Sphere of the State." He is also preparing another on "Probability in Science."

A large number of old Alumni, way as far back as the twenties and thirties, have signified their intention of being present at Commencement.

Prof. T. W. Wright has also prepared a record edition of his mechanics. In this it is understood he makes several quite important changes. The book as first published sold well and has been introduced into many institutions.

We are pleased to find in McMillan's Catalogue two books edited by one of Union's professors. They are "The Invasion of Britain" and "The Helvetian War," adopted by American schools by Prof. Sydney G. Ashmore. Prof. Ashmore has also two other books ready for publication. These are editions of Horace and the Adelphae of Terence.

Owing to the rain only one of the two games scheduled for Decoration Day could be played. This was the afternoon game. It was witnessed by the largest crowd of the season. The game was a very good exhibition of base ball. It resulted in a score of 2 to 6 in favor of Union. We regret to say that up to the time when it is necessary to go to press we have been unable to secure the full score of the game.

Personals.

'79. E. P. White, of Amsterdam, one of the founders and the first editor of THE CONCORDIENSIS, was in Schenectady recently.

'89. C. H. Flanigan who has been at West Superior for the past two years is now in Albany. He was in Schenectady recently, calling on his college friends.

About seven years ago I had Bronchitis, which finally drifted into Consumption, so the doctors said and they had about given me up. I was confined to my bed. One day my husband went for the doctor, but he was not in his office. The druggist sent me a bottle of Piso's Cure for Consumption. I took two doses of it, and was greatly relieved before the doctor came. He told me to continue its use as long as it helped me. I did so, and the result is, I am now sound and well—entirely cured of Consumption.—
Mrs. P. E. BAKER, Harrisburg, Ills., Feb. 20, 1891.

'87. Estcourt has been appointed Secretary of the Board of the World's Columbian Exposition Commissioners of the Fourth Judicial District.

'76. E. S. Clark, who graduated from Union both in the Classical and Engineering courses, and who is now in North West Military Academy at Highland, was in town with his wife recently, and spent some little time in looking over the library, and calling on his friends connected with the college.

'65. Prof. Cady Staley, President of Case School of Applied Sciences, and formerly Professor of Engineering at Union is in town for Commencement. Prof. Staley accompanied by his wife expects to take a trip to Europe, landing at Gibraltar, and then going up through Spain, returning in time for the fall term. Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

A most excellent and agreeable tonic and appetizer. It nourishes and invigorates the tired brain and body imparts renewed energy and vitality, and enlivens the functions.

DR. EPHRAIM BATEMAN, Cedarville, N.J., says:

"I have used it for several years, not only in my practice, but in my own individual case, and consider it under all circumstances one of the best nerve tonics that we possess. For mental exhaustion or overwork it gives renewed strength and vigor to the entire system.

TO THE fastidious person whose recognition of the beautiful in nature and art is inborn there is a certain something which abhors the sight of the incongruous, the loud or the flamboyant. It is in keeping with the feeling which impelled Sydney Smith in speaking of a certain quarrelsome person to state that "his very face was a breach of the peace." It is the same feeling which rebels at the actions of an effeminate man, and is shocked by the antics of a coarse woman; it is on a par with the disdain which the refined and cultured feel for the brutal and the illiterate, and is in consonance with the lack of regard shown the man who does not regard himself sufficiently to want to appear in manner, dress and education like a gentleman. The schools and colleges seek to instruct their students as to the means best employed to make scholarly men and educated women of those under their tutelage; in one particular we can assist them, and that is to keep them informed of the styles in dress which the teachers in fashion declare to be the best. We have an immense stock of spring and summer goods on hand, and are willing and anxious to add to your store of knowledge, outside of that which can be acquired within the college walls, so that when you return to your several homes your dress at least will not justify the old law:

There's many a lad returns from school,
A Hebrew, Greek or Latin fool,
In arts and knowledge still a block,
Though deeply skilled in hie, haec, hoc.
