

1801 JOHN YOUNGLOVE, Jun.

On Wednesday last, the Rev. John Younglove, Jun., was installed Pastor of the Presbyterian Congregation of Brunswick, in this county, by the Presbytery of Columbia. On that occasion, the Rev. Dr. Blatchford preached the installation sermon from Daniel xii, 3. "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightest of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." The Rev. Dr. Coe presided and gave the charge to Mr. Younglove and the Rev. Mr. Prime addressed the people. The whole service was appropriate, solemn, and impressive; and was performed in the presence of a numerous, attentive and respectable audience. --Troy Post, Aug. 27, 1816.

From faculty minutes April 4, 1800

Resolved that John Younglove and Jacob Broadhead be the Monitors for the ensuing year, Younglove of the two upper classes and Broadhead of the other two.

May 6, 1800 Into the Philosophical Class -- Young Younglove

Jan. 27, 1801 The faculty convened to make the necessary appointments and order for the ensuing Commencement. After mature deliberation they agreed to the following order of appointments in the Philosophical Class

1. The Valedictory by John Younglove

.....
2. Dialogue by Cornelius Westbrock and Saml. S. Lush on the most advantageous employment of time by a student in College

.....
3. A second dispute by John Younglove, respondent, Saml. S. Lush opponent and Corns. Westbrock Moderator on this thesis "That duelling is inconsistent with moral obligation and sound policy."

Rev. John Younglove, A. M. Tutor at Union 1802-05

CLASS OF 1801

JOHN YOUNGLOVE

was a native of Cambridge, N. Y. He was graduated at Union College in 1801; was Tutor in the college from 1802 to 1805; was settled in the ministry at Brunswick, N. Y., where he died in 1833. He received the degree of D. D., from his Alma Mater .

FROM Annals of the American Pulpit
William B. Sprague
Robert Carter & Brothers.

The Rev. John Younglove, having filled the pulpit (First Presbyterian Church of Brunswick) for several months, was now constituted pastor of the Church (1816). He filled this office with great acceptance until Dec. 29, 1827*, when he died very suddenly of heart-disease. The church was prosperous under his administration, and the most powerful revival the church has yet witnessed occurred during the last few months of his pastorate, when 78 members were received. p. 540.

History of Rensselaer Co., N. Y.
Nathaniel B. Sylvester
Everts & Peck Phila., Pa. 1880.

*Correct other records for date of death.

1801

JOHN YOUNGLOVE

DIED: On the 29th ult., the Rev. John Younglove,
Pastor of the Presbyterian church in Brunswick,
Rensselaer county.

Albany Argus
Jan. 18, 1828.

1801

JOHN YOUNGLOVE.

Died: on the 29th ult. the Rev. John Younglove, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, in Brunswick, Rensselaer County. - Albany Argus and City Gazette. Jan. 18, 1828.

John Younglove AB 1801

John Younglove

A. B.
1801