Son of Jonas Coe (Rutgers 1789) and Eliza Huntting, was born in January, 1800 and was graduated at Union College in 1816. He became a student of Princeton Theological Seminary in the autumn of 1817; was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Troy in October, 1820; after labouring for some time as a missionary, was ordained and installed pastor of the church in Whitehall, N. Y., in July, 1822; and died in September, 1823. He inherited many of his father's excellent qualities, and many fond hopes were blasted by his early death.

He was a brother of Edward M. Coe, Union 1815.

FROM Annals of the American Pulpit Vol. 3
William B. Sprague
Robert Carter & Brothers New York.

NOTE A biography of Jonas Coe is given in the above volume.
DIED: On the 30th ult., at Whitehall landing, Rev. John R. Coe, son of the late Rev. Dr. Coe, of Troy, N. Y. We have seldom, says the Poultney Gazette, been called upon to record a death which has excited deeper feelings of pain, than we felt on hearing of the death of this beloved young man, not only the infant church over which he was appointed, but the whole Christian community are by this afflicting providence, called to mourning.

Albany Argus
October 7, 1823.
CLASS OF 1616

JOHN ROGERS COE

Son of Rev. Jonas and Elizabeth Hunting Miller Coe. Born at Lansingburgh, N. Y., January 17, 1600. Graduated A. B. at Union College in 1816, and studied theology at the Princeton Theological Seminary where he graduated S. T. B. in 1820. In October, 1820, he was licensed a Presbyterian preacher, and after some months' service, in July, 1822, he was ordained and settled at the church at Whitehall, N. Y., Washington Co., where he died unmarried September 30, 1823 at the early age of twenty-three years, having given promise of the excellent qualities of his father.

Robert Coe, Puritan

J. Gardner Bartlett
Boston, Mass.
1911.

p. 119
Rev. JOHN R. COE, A.M., 1816, a resident of Troy, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society. (Died: 1823)

Philomathean Catalogue 1830
1816  COE, JOHN R.

Was born in January, 1800; was graduated Union College; became a student at the Princeton Theological Seminary in the autumn of 1817; was licenced to preach by the Presbytery of Troy in October, 1820; after laboring for some time in Whitehall, N.Y., in July, 1822 was ordained and installed pastor of the church in Whitehall in July, 1822; died in September, 1823. He inherited many of his father's excellent qualities, and many fond hopes were blasted by his early death.

Source: Reminiscences of Troy
p. 80
John Woodworth
J. Munsell
Albany 1860

Son of Rev. Jonas Coe and Eliza Hunting Miller Coe