21. Additional information. (Use this space for any other biographical data or to supplement any of the above answers.) My late husband J. W. H. Ridders, nameake of his uncle the man whom you ask information possesses the Old Dutch Bible printed at The Hague, Holland in 1636 from which I got this data. The same Uncle mailed him this book and a small amount of money for his name. I doubt if there be any of the younger generation who would know much about him as you will see he lived to be 102 and they were children or unborn.
