A correspondence was opened with him July 17, 1828, with a view to his coming as rector (of St. Paul's Church, Protestant Episcopal) of Erie, Pa. The wardens were instructed to ascertain from Mr. McConkey his terms for boarding, and, if Mr. Glover will remain here some time, to make the lowest and best boarding terms;*****

Mr. Glover was called during the year. (He was at Philadelphia when this correspondence began)

Rev. Mr. Glover continued to serve the parish on a small salary, with the aid of the Society for the Promotion of Christianity, till his death in 1838.
