UNION vs. RENSSELAER POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE.

Results in Victory for Union.

In the third game of the season, Saturday, April 19, Union defeated the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute team by the decisive score of 19 to 1.

In spite of the pouring rain which continued during the first four innings, both sides played snappy ball, the advantage, however, being with the home team from the start. R. P. I. failed to score in the first inning, Union making two runs. The second inning was a shut out for both sides, while in the third R. P. I. succeeded in scoring one run.

After the third, things were decidedly in favor of Union and the visitors failed to score again in the remaining four innings that were played. Union commenced to pile up the score, in the fourth by making seven runs, and kept up the good work until the end.

M. Devoe at second, made a brilliant double play in the fourth inning, by stopping a liner and fielding the ball to first, catching the man forced off first.

N. Devoe pitched the entire game and did admirable work in view of the rain which made it practically impossible to control the ball. A three bagger by M. Devoe in the fifth inning and also one by N. Devoe in the sixth were features of the game. In fact, every man on the home team played good ball.

Wirth and Bascom played an excellent game for R. P. I., Wirth's work as catcher being exceptionally fine. The summary is as follows:

On the Campus.

The Union team met the Schenectady League base ball team on the campus Thursday, April 17. Devoe did the best work for Union while Molesworth and Cooper were the best of the local city team. The game resulted in a score of nineteen to five in favor of Schenectady.

SOPHOMORES, 11; FRESHMEN, 7.

The first of the series of the inter-class games was played Wednesday afternoon on the college diamond between the sophomores and freshmen and resulted in an easy victory for the former by the score of 11 to 7.

Class of 1852. In this number The Concordiensis presents individual histories of all the members of the class of 1852. This class will hold the fiftieth anniversary of its graduation at Commencement. The bulk of the facts has been obtained, as usual, from the fraternites. In some cases the information concerning the men has been very meagre, only what could be obtained from the Centennial Catalogue of the college is given. It is the duty of any alumni knowing of any correction necessary in these histories to communicate with the editors.

The Track. The management of the track team has succeeded in arranging for a dual meet with Rutgers on May 10 at Ridgefield in Albany. This fact should be realized by every man trying for the team and also by any man having any ability whatever in that direction. The date is only two weeks distant and that means that every man will have to train and train hard. Manager Stiles is in correspondence with the management of the University of Vermont track team and it is probable that a meet can be arranged with that institution. And with the new coach, Mr. Thompson, and the prospects of two meets there can be no excuse for anyone to complain because of the lack of an opportunity to show what athletic ability one may have. Union has won many a meet in the past against stronger teams than she will meet this year and here is an opportunity to show of what stuff Union men are made. Remember that it is for the honor and glory of the college that you strive.

THE IDOL.

Thou standest there, O Image green,
In silence, with the silent elms
On either side, and thou between,
Borne far from oriental realms.

No servile throngs about thee wait,
In reverential awe profound;
Nor bless thee in thy mute estate,
Nor bow obeisance to the ground.

Dethroned, the mockery of fate,
The sport of occidental youth,
No blessings now dost thou await,
Unlorded lord of all but truth!

A. H. HINMAN, '02.

'95.—James M. Cass was elected to elders' orders by the recent seventieth annual session of the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church held at Saratoga.

'95.—Dr. George L. Streeter, who graduated from Union in 1875, has sailed for Germany where he will continue his study of nervous diseases. He will spend about eighteen months in Frankfort, on the Rhine, and upon his return will resume his clinical work in the Albany Medical College.

Suppose

that instead of going to the tailor this spring for a Suit you try one of our ready-to-wear suits. You will find it will fit better, wear longer, keep its shape, and be in better style and taste than anything the average tailor can make to your measure. The suit will cost you about one-half of what the tailor would charge. These high-grade suits come from such manufacturers as Rogers, Peet & Co., Hart, Schaffner & Marx, and other makers of reliable clothing. Come in and look at our Spring Suits and Top Coats.
