The annual New York trip of the college musical association, which was taken last week, proved a pronounced success. The association entertained crowded houses and was received with enthusiasm all along the route and many an alumnus felt his heart thrill with increased love for Alma Mater, while listening to the typical college program rendered by Union's musicians.

Nearly 30 members of the club left Schenectady Thursday afternoon and a large and enthusiastic audience greeted the club as it arrived. TheSecond Reformed church of that place was filled to the doors, and the large audience by their frequent applause showed their appreciation of the music.

Newburgh was visited for the third time on Friday. A good-sized audience attended the concert which was given in Trinity church. Long-continued applause followed every number and the clubs were recalled many times. The prestige which Union College Musical association has at Newburgh was shown by the fact that, before the evening was over, Assistant Manager Van Vlack had made an engagement for a return trip next year. All of the Newburgh dailies contained complimentary notices of the concert.

The members of the clubs were well entertained after the performance. Some went to a "chowder," where "Weedy" distinguished himself as a song and dance artist; some visited the various clubs of the city and others attended several dances that were being held. While in Newburgh the collegians stopped at the Palatine.

At New York the boys were entertained at Hotel Savoy and were given a tally-ho ride throughout the length of Fifth avenue. For this and many other acts of liberality the association is indebted to Mr. Gilbert K. Harroun, the treasurer of the college.

The trip closed Saturday night with the New York concert, which was held in Carnegie Lyceum. Every seat was taken and standing room was at a premium. The alumni of the great metropolis and its suburbs were out in full force and accorded the clubs a hearty reception. From a musical as well as a financial standpoint, the New York concert was one of the most successful ever given by the Union College Musical association.

The mandolin club was much better and stronger than ever before, under the leadership of Clayton J. Heermance, 1901. Clarence D. Stewart, 1900, proved, as usual, the efficient director of the banjo club, and Frederick Greene, '99, was in charge of the glee club. Among the features of the New York concert was an effective medley from "The Runaway Girl," arranged by Harold J. Hinman, '99, who assumed charge of the Mandolin club while the piece was being played. A new Union song entitled, "Rah! Rah! Rah!" which was composed by Dr. Joseph Alen O'Neill, '97, of New York, was sung by the glee club and "The Trolley Party" by the instrumentalists proved a favorite. Strictly college songs predominated among the vocal selections.

At the close of the concert all of the "Sons of Old Union" present, old, young and middle-aged, gathered on the stage and joined with enthusiasm in the singing of Ludlow's inspiring melody which has for so many years been dear to all who have lived within the shadows of the old, gray walls.

For the success of the concert, the undergraduates are greatly indebted to the loyal alumni of the city and especially to Professor Edgar S. Barney, the genial secretary of the New York alumni association, through whose especial efforts the concert was made so great a success.
Union Wins from Colgate.

The first championship game of the season occurred on the campus, Wednesday afternoon, between Union and Colgate. The crowd was small, but the enthusiasm was intense, and it was in part due to the frequent yells of the students that the result was favorable for Union. The game was loosely played, a large number of errors being credited to both sides. Union started in with some lively hitting and filled the bases. The ball was hit freely, but well guarded by Colgate. Hegeman was hit by pitched ball, and the first run was credited to Union. Colgate also secured one run in this inning.

In the next, neither side managed to score. Colgate seemed sure of sending a man over the plate, but a neat double play by Lawton to Purchase to Hegeman, kept down the score. In the third and fourth Colgate secured three more runs, making the score 4 to 1.

The fifth inning brought in three runs for Union. With two men on bases, Lawton put the ball over the terrace for a home run. Colgate, however, took advantage of a run of errors in this inning and added four runs to their credit.

Score, 8 to 4.

In the eighth inning Union started in to change the seemingly almost inevitable result, but with timely batting they managed to pile up six more runs. Colgate went to pieces with their pitcher and to the end of the game Edwards had them at his mercy. The game closed with the score 10 to 8 in Union’s favor.

Library Notices.

One of the most useful additions to the library that has been made for some time is the set of the Annual Literary Index for 1896, 1897 and 1898. Each vol. contains an index to periodicals, index to general literature, author index, bibliographies, necrology of writers and index to dates of principal events. The latter practically serves as an index to the files of any newspaper.

The Index to General Literature and Author Index for 1898 contains title entries to "The Library of the World's Best Literature," edited by Chas. Dudley Warner, issued at intervals during 1896-98.

The Theta Sigmas Entertain.

The annual entertainment and dance of the Theta Sigma society of U. C. I. was held in Arcade hall last Friday evening and a most enjoyable time was had by the large number of young people present.

The entertainment, consisting of recitations and a farce was held first, after which the seats were removed and dancing enjoyed until the small hours of the morning.

A large number of college men were present among whom were: From the class of '99, Beardsley, Bradford, Davis, Purchase, Huntley, Sherwood, Strong, F. T. Wright; from 1900, Featherstonhaugh, Dunham, Lawton, Cullings, Paige, Rogers, Thomson, Willis, Brownell, Palmer and Ripley; from 1901, Clements, Golden, Hackett, Leavenworth, Merriman and Warner; from 1902, Bothwell, Hawkes, Morris, Russum, Ostrander, Yates, Griffith and Woolworth.
THE CONCORDIENSIS.

Union, 6; West Point, 3.

The baseball season out of town was inaugurated last Saturday with a victory over the West Point cadets on their own grounds. The game was a good one to win and the team is to be congratulated over the victory.

Accompanied by Manager Gambee, and two substitutes the nine left Saturday morning on the 8:18 train. Arriving at West Point they were cordially received and as cordially treated during their entire stay. After dinner and before the game there was a review in full marching order of all the cadets, a sight well worth witnessing.

The two teams were evenly matched, but although Union made only four hits and six errors to the cadets' nine hits and four errors the collegians scored six runs to their opponents three. Union fielded well as also did West Point, but the team work of the former was better than the cadets'. Several times during the game a hit was all that was needed to raise the cadets' score, but lack of ability to hit at the proper time lost them the game. Cook was behind the bat for Union and he played an errorless game. The rest of the team played uniformly good ball.

A Defeat for the Frosh.

A very uninteresting game of baseball was played between the freshmen (? ) and the city Y. M. C. A. team on Saturday last. Numerous errors were made by both teams and a large score was piled up in the seven innings. The final score was 21 to 14 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. The teams were made up as follows:

The Alpha Delta Phi Dance.

The Alpha Dels gave a most enjoyable dance at their chapter house on Tuesday evening. Music was furnished by Gioscia and refreshments by the fraternity chef.

Those present were: Mrs. Ashmore, Mrs. DeRemer; the Misses Kellogg and Stover, Amsterdam; Miss Tointon, Detroit; Miss Hailes, Albany; Miss Cary, Binghamton; the Misses Stebbens, New York; and from the city, the Misses Clark, Ostrom, Walker, Case, Lewis, Johnson, Price, Alexander, Van Deusen, Backus, Whitlock, Beattie, Strain, Paige, Williams, Brown, Campbell, Veeder, Horstman, Yates, Schoolcraft, Howard and Linn; and Messrs. Sherwood, Brown, Foote, Paige, Featherstonhaugh, Warner, Lawrence, Parker, Casey, Bradford, Rogers, Wiley, Pike, Hegeman, Beardsley, Eames, Yates, Van Voast, Case, Bennett, Angle, Porter; and out of town, Messrs. Johnston, Palantine Bridge; Robinson, Albany; Stewart, Amsterdam.
One of the events of the college year will be the minstrel entertainment which is booked to come off on the night of May 30, at the Van Curler. Rehearsals have been in progress for the past two months, and from present indications a high-class, burnt cork entertainment may be expected. The musical abilities of the college boys are well-known, and, with the musical part of the entertainment under the direction of Prof. Rost, the success of the project is assured. The tickets have been put on sale, and everyone should see that the show is well advertised, and that all of his friends have tickets. The motive which prompted the affair is a commendable one, and since the proceeds will go into athletic fund, every student should do all he can to make the show a financial success. Those who have parts are working faithfully, so that a good performance may be given, and it is no more than fair that those, who have not the talent to do an act, should take hold and secure a good attendance.

Once more we call the attention of the alumni to their unpaid subscriptions. The editors cannot run the paper on air, and it is necessary that the out-standing subscriptions should be sent in immediately. The better the support given by the alumni, the better paper the editors are able to publish. Our subscription lists contain the names of alumni well able to pay, but they do not seem to care enough for the college paper to give it their support. This is not loyalty to Alma Mater by a long shot. Kindly send your check by return mail.

We are glad to see "the copper" once more on the hill. He is a very necessary part of the college, and knows how to uphold the majesty of the law in a kindly but firm manner. We do not mean to infer that a college policeman is necessary to keep order among the students, but rather that one is needed for the protection of them and of college property. There is a certain element who make themselves more or less a nuisance; they are always looking for trouble, or at least falling into it, and the services of a policeman are needed to keep this class at a distance.

The practice of the last two week has done much for the baseball team, but there is still a chance for improvement. We have been fortunate enough to win the last two games although the team made many more errors than their opponents. The game with Colgate was very exciting, but it was not the most scientific game of baseball that has been played on the college campus. The game was one of those in which no one could tell just what was likely to happen next. The best work was done in the last part of the game, and the team generally deserves a great deal of credit, especially the battery. The rooting throughout the game was strong and enthusiastic, and it did a great deal towards keeping up the spirit of the players at the most critical moments. Let not the enthusiasm diminish until the season is over.

Intercollegiate.

The question of the Harvard-Princeton debate is: "Resolved, that a formal alliance between the United States and Great Britain for the protection and advancement of their common interests, is advisable." Harvard has choice of sides.

An innovation in connection with the Harvard-Yale boat race has been announced in the way of a four-oared race between the substitutes of the two crews. This race will probably be rowed on a two-mile course after the university race and before the freshman race.

Several members of the Yale faculty are reported as considering the advisability of introducing team golf matches next year between faculty teams of the leading eastern colleges. The plan has been tried successfully by the faculties of several Scotch colleges.
The Supreme Court of Connecticut has issued an official warning to the corporation of Yale University based upon the discrimination in the price of its dormitory rooms, ranging from 75 cents to $10 per week, which fosters a pernicious student classification, destructive to the spirit of independent equality. The corporation replies, substantially, that such discriminating rates are a necessity, because the alternative would be the bankruptcy of the institution. The Yale Alumni Weekly endorses the warning of the court "in plainer language," it says, "than we have ever used."
