

1804

PHILIP VAN VECHTEN

The relatives, friends and acquaintances of Abraham Van Vechten, are requested to attend the funeral of his deceased son, Philip Van Vechten, on Thursday, the 17th inst, at 4 o'clock P.M., from his residence in Market Street.

Albany Argus
February 15, 1814.

Philip Van Vechten delivered the funeral oration of John Livingston 1804 on Aug. 20,
1803. A copy of this oration is filed in Livingston's folder in 1804.

Philip Van Vechten

Class of 1804

Philip was the son of Abraham and Catharina (Schuyler) Van Vechten. He was born July 14 1786 and died February 1 1814. He was not married.

His father received the honorary degree of L.L.D. from Union College in 1835.

Above information regarding Philip was taken from the "Genealogical Records of the Van Vechtens from 1638 to 1896" by Peter Van Vechten Jr. Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

CLASS OF 1804.

PHILIP VAN VECHTEN.

Inscription on tombstone in Reformed Protestant
Dutch burial ground in Albany as given in Munsell's
Annals, vol. 6 p; 188.

In memory of Philip Van Vechten, son of Abraham
Van Vechten and Catharine Schuyler, died February
14, 1814, aged 27 years and 7 months.

1804 Philip Van Vechten died Albany Feb. 14, 1807.

PHILIP VAN VECHTEN, A.M., 1804, a resident of Albany, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society. H died 1814.

Philomathean Catalogue 1830.

Philip Van Vechten AB-1804

Philip Van Vechten <sup>H.B.</sup> 1804