GIDEON N. JUDD, D.D., '14

The son of Abner and Elizabeth Judd, was born at Danbury, Conn., July 1, 1788. He graduated at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.; in 1814, and studied Theology at Princeton Seminary, where he finished his course in 1817.

He was licensed by Columbia Presbytery at Cambridge, N. Y., in July, 1817, and the Presbytery ordained him in June, 1818, as an Evangelist. He subsequently became pastor of the church at Bloomfield, N. J., which relation existed for some years, and in 1840 he accepted a call from Catskill church, N. Y., and he subsequently became pastor of the church at Montgomery, N. Y., where he died, March 3, 1860, of pneumonia, complicated with an affection of the throat.

He was well known in the Presbyterian church for thirty years past. He was at one time Secretary of the American Home Missionary Society, in the Philadelphia district, as well as, for a brief period, agent to endow the Union Theological Seminary. He was greatly beloved by the people of the churches where he was pastor. The Bloomfield church presented him with a lot in their cemetery and the congregations of Catskill and Montgomery erected a monument to his memory.

He was active and enterprising, and though without robust health, he retained all his powers of vigorous exercise to the last. His last sermon, one of a series on the "Mind of Christ," indicated high mental power, and he was actively employed in his pastoral duties the whole day previous to this last illness. His end was peace, perfect through an abiding faith in his Saviour; he published a work entitled, "Worldly Conformity," also a History of the Division of the Presbyterian Church.

He married Miss Catherine Frelinghuysen of Somerset Co., New Jersey, May 13, 1816, who, with one son and three daughters, survives him.

His son, Rev. F. F. Judd, is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Parsippany, New Jersey.

(Died: 1860)
The congregation (First Presbyterian Church of Montgomery, N.Y.) meanwhile had employed Rev. Gideon N. Judd, D. D., of Catskill, N.Y., as temporary supply. Dr. Judd labored with great acceptance during the winter, and when the spring came, and Dr. Fairchild reported himself as no better prepared to resume his labors, the congregation saw the way open to secure the services of Dr. Judd as their future pastor. The call was made and accepted, and he was installed September 4, 1850.

Dr. Judd continued his labors—"Warning every man, and teaching every man, that he might be able to present every man perfect before Christ Jesus."—until the midnight cry came on March 30, 1860.
