Schenectady, N.Y.

Dear Sir:-

In response to your request for further information about my grandfather, David William Elmore, I have been able to secure only the following. I am sorry not to have names of places of pastorates, etc.

David William Elmore, born in Chatham, N.Y., Feb. 3, 1800. Graduated from Union College. (Date not known. Family records say with degree of M.A.) Graduated Newton Theological Seminary 1824. (This is their record. It seems rather early. This was Newton's first class.)

Held pastorates in New York state. Settled at St. Charles, Ill. in 1836. Organized many churches in that section. Died July 29, 1854 at St. Charles, Ill. (Killed by lightning.)

Sincerely yours,

W. T. Elmore.

Dear Sir:-

My grandfather, David William Elmore, graduated from Union about 1821, or 1822. I would like to know what record you have of him. He was born in 1800, and died at St. Charles, Ill., July 29, 1854. The family history says that he had an A.M. from Union. In 1826 he graduated from Newton Theological Seminary.

His son, my father, J.H.Elmore of 1736 G St., Lincoln, Nebraska, will be ninety years old Jan. 7, 1931. It is this rather important birthday which leads me to look up this record. I shall be grateful for anything you can give me.

Sincerely yours,

W. T. Elmore.

DAVID W. ELMORE, 1823, of Nassau, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society.

My dear Dr. Elmore:

Your letter to the registrar
has been referred to our office.

Our only record of David W.
Elmore reads: "Clergyman, born at Nassau; died at Fayville, Ill., 1855. Newton Theological Seminary, 1833." He graduated A. B., class of 1825.

This record is very meagre and does not agree with the facts you give. We are now accumulating material for a biographical catalog and should be most glad to have you send us a sketch of your grandfather's life:- date of birth, pastorates, any other positions, name of wife and children, and any other facts of interest.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to Mr. Waldron
