

1804 SAMUEL E. WARFORD

S. WARFORD

Attorney at Law

Has removed his office to the home lately occupied by Mrs. White, a few rods north of the Court-House, on the opposite side of the street, where he will attend to any business in the line of his profession faithfully and punctually. CONVEYANCES executed with accuracy and dispatch.

Salem, June 28, 1815.

The Northern Post
Salem, N.Y.
October 26, 1815.

CLASS OF 1804

SAMUEL E. WARFORD

Son of Rev. John and Mrs. Margaret (Piper) (Kirkpatrick) Warford.

Prepared for college at Washington Academy, Salem, N. Y.
Became an attorney-at-law;

Married on February 12, 1817, Margaret H. Delaplaine, and settled in Salem, and was long in business there.

Brother of John B Warford, Class of 1800
James Warford, Class of 1803.

History of Washington County, N. Y. p. 66
The Gibson Papers
Compiled by William H. Hill
Fort Edward, N. Y.
1932

Samuel E. Warford - AB-1804

Samuel E. Warford

A. B.
1804