CHARLES F. INGALLS

Son of Charles Ingalls (Dartmouth) of Greenwich, N.Y.

He commenced the practice of law in Greenwich in 1818, and continued it until within a few years prior to his death, which occurred in 1870. He was a judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, district attorney of said county, and was elected a member of the Assembly from that county in the year 1853. He was a thorough and able lawyer, a respected citizen, a kind friend, and honest man.

His brother Thomas R. Ingalls was a graduate of West Point in 1820.

The wife of Charles F. Ingalls was Mary Rogers, daughter of Nathan Rogers.

His sons were Charles R. Ingalls and Thomas Ingalls who graduated at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., in 1852.

1817  CHARLES F. INGALLS.

Was appointed on last Wednesday, district attorney, Mr. Ingalls is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office, and we have seldom known an appointment more cordially received, not only by the democracy of the county, but by the public generally.
