

1820.

The death of Judiah Ellsworth is announced. Mr. Ellsworth was a graduate of Union College, and forty years ago was a leading member of the Saratoga Bar. In 1832 he was made Master of Chancery, and in 1840 President Harrison appointed him Postmaster at Saratoga Springs. In 1860 he represented the second assembly district in the New York State Legislature, as a Republican.

C. April 1882.

JUDIAH ELLSWORTH, '22.

His original residence was Saratoga, N. Y., and his last residence, as entered in the College Catalogue, was Luzerne, N. Y.

After graduation, he practiced law in Saratoga Co., residing in Corinth. Forty years ago, he was one of the leaders of the County Bar. In 1832 he was made Master of Chancery. In 1840 President Harrison appointed him postmaster of Saratoga Springs. He represented the second Assembly district in the New York State legislature, as a Republican, in 1860. Mr. Ellsworth was once a large land-owner, but subsequently lost very heavily.

He died March, 1882, in his 83d year, at Corinth.

JUDIAH ELLSWORTH, Esq. A.M., 1822, of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., was a member of the Adelpic Society. (Died: 1882)
Adelpic Catalogue 1830

1822 JUDIAH ELLSWORTH:

Married: At Arlington, Vt., on Tuesday morning, 17th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Hard, Judiah Ellsworth, esq., attorney and counsellor at law, of Saratoga Springs, to Miss Frances H. Canfield, of the former place.--Daily Albany Argus, Sept. 26, 1839.

Died ;At Saratoga Springs, on the 24th ult, Frances, wife of Judiah Ellsworth, aged 20 years.--Daily Albany Argus, March 10, 1841.

CLASS OF 1822.

JUDIAH ELLSWORTH.

A well-known resident of this community the first half of the last century, was born in Pownal, Vt., Jan. 30, 1800. His parents removed to this county in 1809 and settled some four miles from Schuylerville. In 1811, they removed to this village, purchasing a farm on Congress street, part of which was later the site of the Pitney House, a short distance west of the Adirondack R. R., and still standing. The Pitney House was originally built for a farm house by Mr. Ellsworth's father.

Judiah Ellsworth graduated from Union College and studied law in the office of Esek Cowen, and for a few years after his admission to the bar, he was a law partner of Mr. Cowen, until the latter was appointed in 1828 a circuit judge to succeed Judge Walworth, appointed Chancellor.

Mr. Ellsworth soon became one of the leaders of the Saratoga County bar, but he was continually entering into real estate and lumbering operations which took up most of his time. President Harrison appointed Mr. Ellsworth postmaster of Saratoga Springs to succeed Dr. R. L. Allen. This office he held for about two years, the post office being located in the basement under the American Hotel. In 1859 Mr. Ellsworth was elected a member of Assembly.

In 1867 he removed from the village to Luzerne to be more convenient to his lumber and real estate operations on the mountains in Corinth and Hadley.

He died March 9, 1882 and was buried in Lynwood Cemetery at Conklingville.

Reminiscences of Saratoga County

p. 237

Durkee

CLASS OF 1822

JUDIAH ELLSWORTH

At the April term, 1824, (Court of Common Pleas) Judiah Ellsworth and John L. Koon (Class of 1817) took the oath of office as attorneys. Mr. Ellsworth was a successful lawyer at Saratoga Springs for many years and was quite noted as a Whig politician. He was appointed examiner in chancery in 1828 and master in 1832, and represented the second district of this county in the legislature of 1860. He is yet a hard working lawyer living at Luzerne, Warren County.

FROM The Bench and Bar of Saratoga County
Enos R. Mann
Waterbury & Inman
Ballston 1876.