

CLASS OF 1827

DAVID R. AUSTIN

Married Lucinda Newell Ely, daughter of Rev. Alfred and Lucinda (Newell) Ely of Monson, Mass. She died in 1864 and was survived by two children: Mary E., who married August T. Post, of Brooklyn, and Alfred Ely.

The Ely Re-Union
p. 41
Held at Lyme, Conn.,
July 10, 1878.

Rev. DAVID R. AUSTIN, 1827, of South Hadley, Mass., was a member of the Adelpic Society. (Died: 1879)
Adelpic Catalogue 1830

CLASS OF 1827

DAVID R. AUSTIN, A. M.

Principal of Monson Academy, Wilbraham, Mass., from 1835 to 1839.

DAVID R. AUSTIN 1827

born Norwich, Conn. 1807. Graduated 1827. Lettered pastor over Cong. Church in Ludlow, Mass, May 1, 1835. Resigned, July 1837. Principal of the Academy at Monson.

Prof. Pearson's Scrap Book p. 305

1827

We regret to announce the death of the Rev. D. R. Austin, of the class of 1827. He died at South Norwalk, Conn., on November 8th, 1879.

Concordiensis Dec. 1879.

DAVID R. AUSTIN

was born in Bridgeport, Conn. He was graduated in 1827 and immediately engaged as an instructor in the Chittenango Polytechnic School, studying Theology at the same time. In 1829 he entered the Theological Seminary in New Haven. In 1830 he opened the Woodbridge school at South Hadley, Mass.; was licensed to preach and in 1833 was ordained pastor of the church in Ludlow, Mass. In 1836 he became principal of the Academy in Monson, Mass.; in 1839 was installed pastor of the Congregational Church in Sturbridge, Mass.; in 1852 was installed over the Second Congregational Church in South Norwalk, Conn., and withdrew in 1866. He continued to reside there until his death, Nov. 8th, 1879, in his 80th year. After his dismission from the pastorate he continued to engage in every good work. He left a son and a married daughter. He was a strong Republican.

David R. Austin A.B. 1827

David R. Austin 1827
H.B.