NOTE: I think there is a mix-up with Thomas McAuley, 1804, who was the Professor at Union. There is nothing to show that this McAuley was ever in Kortright.
Macaulay Thomas - Class 1813 - Schwed, "Cabinet" advertised his name for list of letters unclaimed in Post Office - July 7, 1819. Evidently he spent some years after graduation in Schenectady. His last known address was Kostnicht, N.Y. It may be Otago Co. (wherein is Kostnicht) might furnish a clue. The place is not for your oneonta.
