1812 WILLIAM A. S. NORTH.

DIED: At his residence in Duanesburgh, on the morning of the 7th inst. Col. William A.S. North, in the 52d year of his age.--Daily Albany Argus, Nov. 10, 1845.
WILLIAM AUGUSTUS STEUBEN NORTH

Son of Gen. William and Mary (Duane) North. She was the daughter of Hon. James Duane of New York. He was born February 1, 1793.

William A. S. North, of Duanesburg, N. Y., was educated at Union College where he was graduated in 1812; studied law in the city of New York, where he was admitted to practice and for a few years was employed in the business of his profession. Preferring the more congenial pursuits of agriculture, he retired to and occupied a large patrimonial estate at Duanesburg, which he managed and improved by a judicious system of husbandry. He introduced valuable blood stock into the State; wrote for the agricultural journals, and by active influence promoted the general cause of agricultural improvement in that section of the country.

He married Margaret Bridge, daughter of Judge Bridge of Augusta, Me.

He died November 7, 1845.

Three children:

Mary Catherine married Rev. D. C. Weston
Hannah Elizabeth
Adelia, died young.

FROM History of Augusta, Me., p. 918
James W. North
Clapp & North
Augusta 1870.

WILLIAM A. S. NORTH, A.M., 1812, a resident of Duanesburgh, was a member of the Philomathean Society.

Philomathean Catalogue 1830 (Died in 1845)
DIED: At his residence in Duanesburgh, on the 7th inst., Col. William Augustus Steuben North, only son of the late distinguished General William North, and grandson of that eminent citizen of the last age, the Hon. James Duane.

Col. North was born on the 1st of February, 1793, in the same house in which he died. He was graduated at Union College at an early age and after studying a while subsequently at Yale College, under the care of Dr. Silliman, he devoted himself to the cultivation of his paternal acres. He was, it is believed, well and favorably known to agriculturists throughout the state for his interest and zeal in advancing this chief department of human industry. Of an amiable, frank and kindly temper, upright in his dealings and liberal in his charities, he lived universally esteemed and died universally lamented. To his family, to the (Episcopal) Church in Duanesburgh, and to society generally, his loss will be irreparable.

The following resolutions, passed by the Vestry of Christ Church, Duanesburgh, on the day of his burial, will show the estimation in which he was held by those who best knew him.

Resolved, That in the death of Col. William A.S. North, our Senior Warden, this church is bereaved of a sound and faithful lay officer, and a sincere participant in her holy ordinances, and a liberal supporter of her sacred interests; this community of an upright citizen; the poor of a constant friend and benefactor; and our-selves of a true hearted Christian Brother.

Resolved, That while we deeply mourn his loss, we desire to bow submissively under the righteous hand of God, and pray that this most afflicting providence may be sanctified to the spiritual welfare of all the members of the parish.

Resolved, That we respectfully tender our sympathy to the family of the deceased, with the assurance of our prayers that God may bless and comfort them under this bereavement.

Resolved, That we recognize in the suddenness of this event, a warning to hasten our preparation, that we may also be ready when the Son of man shall come.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be entered on the minutes of the Vestry, and a copy of them communicated to the family of the deceased. (Communicated)

Daily Albany Argus
Nov. 14, 1848.