CLASS OF 1818

JACOB DE GROOT MCDONALD

Son of George and Sarah (De Groot) McDonald. She was a daughter of Judge De Groot, of Bound Brook.

Brother of Daniel Perrine McDonald, Class of 1818.

George McDonald resided and practiced law in Somerville until about 1819, when he removed to Indiana, where he died the following year. He was a member of Somerset Lodge, No. 1, later known as Solomon's Lodge No. 1. He was Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Secretary from 1806 to 1819 (except 1810).

Somerset County Historical Quarterly pp. 73; 75
Vol. 5 1916

JACOB D. G. MCDONALD, non-graduate of 1818, of Sumerville, N.J., was a member of the Adelphic Society. Adelphic Catalogue 1830.