CLASS OF 1820

JAMES G. HOPKINS

Son of Dr. Roswell and Lydia Dewey Hopkins. Dr. Roswell was the founder of Hopkinton, N. Y. Born probably at Vergennes, Vt., June 15, 1801. Married October 23, 1832, Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Rossell, of Ogdensburg, N. Y. He died at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 6, 1861.

Children:
1. Louisa Rossell, b. March 20, 1835; m. Oct. 13, 1858, Calvin W. Gibbs; he died April 26, 1879; she died at Detroit, Mich., Mar. 27, 1894.
3. Louis Kimball, b. Nov. 1862; of Detroit, unm.
5. Louisa Rossell, b. Mar. 19, 1873; unm.
6. Elizabeth Rossell, d. in infancy.
7. Ross Campbell, d. in infancy.
8. Joseph Rossell, d. in infancy.

John Hopkins
Timothy Hopkins
1932

JAMES G. HOPKINS, Esq., non-graduate of 1820, was a member of the Philomathean Society.

Philomathean Catalogue 1820