CLASS OF 1817

FRED T. TIFFANY

In 1853 the Rev. Fred T. Tiffany began his missionary labors in the village of Claverack, which resulted in the formation of a parish, July 23, 1856, known as Trinity Church (Protestant Episcopal), and organized with him as Rector. His rectorship continued until his death, September 2, 1863.

History of Columbia Co., N. Y. p. 249
Everts & Ensign
Philadelphia 1878.
FREDERICK TRENCK TIFFANY

He was for many years rector of the Episcopal Church at Cooperstown, and afterwards at Claverack, N.Y. He was also chaplain of Congress for one session.

He was born at West Stockbridge, Conn., July 4, 1795; died Claverack, N.Y., September 2, 1863.

Children: All born in Cooperstown:

2. Mary Miller, b. July 1, 1826; died Nov. 29, 1843.
3. William Averell, b. about 1828.
4. Anna, b. about 1830.

The Tiffanys of America p. 127
Nelson Otis Tiffany

His father, Isaiah married Anne Whitney, June 4, 1789. She was born Norwich, Conn., Feb. 8, 1762; died Cooperstown, N.Y., May 17, 1830. He was an ensign in the Revolution and was promoted to lieutenant April 22, 1781, serving until the close of the war in 1783. His record is given in the records of the Adjutant General's office, Hartford, Conn. He fought in eighteen battles, including Monmouth, and Yorktown, and was at Valley Forge. He was one of the forlorn hope in storming the redoubts at Yorktown. He was present at the hanging of Andre.

The Tiffanys of America p. 126
Nelson Otis Tiffany

Rev. FREDERICK T. TIFFANY, A.M., 1817, of Canaan, N.Y., was a member of the Adelphic Society.
Adelphic Catalogue 1830 (Died: 1864)
FREDERICK T. TIFFANY.

Died: At Cooperstown, on the 29th ult., Mary Miller Tiffany, aged 17 years and 6 months, eldest daughter of Rev. F. T. Tiffany.

Daily Albany Argus, Dec. 7, 1842