

1819

WILLIAM H. PREVOST

DIED: After a few days' illness, near the village of Dexter, in the territory of Michigan, about the 15th of July last, Dr. William H. Prevost, son-in-law of Henry F. Yates, Esq., of Johnstown, in the 26th year of his age, leaving a wife and one child to mourn his irreparable loss.

Albany Gazette
August 15, 1826

WILLIAM H. PREVOST, non-graduate of 1819, of Granville, N.Y., was a member of the Adelpic Society. He died in 1826 .
Adelpic Catalogue 1830

1819

WILLIAM H. PREVOST

DIED: After a few days' illness, near the village of Dexter, in the Territory of Michigan, about the 15th of July last, Dr. William H. Prevost, son-in-law of Henry F. Yates, Esq., of Johnstown, in the 26th year of his age, leaving a wife and one child to mourn his irreparable loss.

Albany Argus
August 17, 1826.

William H. Prevost 1819

1819
William H. Prevost