Hillhouse, a sister of Thomas Hillhouse, Assistant Treasurer of the United States. Van Schuyler, after his marriage, settled at Fort Johnson, N.Y.; returned to Troy, in business for many years at 241 River Street. Elected Sheriff Rensselaer County 1838-1841. 1855 State, bar recently moved from Saratoga County, Secretary of Mt. Peter's Episcopal Church, Albany.
1816 CORNELIUS SCHUYLER

Another of Albany's venerable sons is no more. Cornelius Schuyler died this morning at the advanced age of eighty-one years. He was a son of Jeremiah Schuyler—a name which in its time was well known in this city; and was born on what is known as the Troy Road in 1795.

After leaving college he turned his attention to mercantile pursuits, and was for some time engaged in business in Troy. He early began to interest himself in politics, and in 1837 was elected Sheriff of Rensselaer County. From Troy he removed to Saratoga county, and was chosen to represent it in the legislature in 1855. Soon after the date last mentioned he came to Albany, and here he has resided ever since.

Mr. Schuyler married a sister of Thomas Hillhouse, late Assistant Treasurer of the United States. She died several years ago. He leaves four children—Mrs. Edward C. Delavan, Miss Sarah Schuyler and Mr. Thomas H. Schuyler, of Albany, and Mrs. James Davis, of Schenectady.

Mr. Schuyler at the time of his death was one of the vestrymen of St. Peter's Church. He was a man of unblemished integrity and was held in high esteem by his fellow-citizens.

Married Harriet Jane Hillhouse, daughter of Thomas and Harriet (Hosmer) Hillhouse, October 25, 1817. She was born in Troy, July 21, 1798. He was born July 1, 1795, son of Jeremiah and Jane (Cuyler) Schuyler, of Hoosick, later Water- villet, N. Y., a graduate of Union College, Schenectady. They settled in the Mohawk Valley and for some time lived in historic "Johnson Hall," built by Sir William Johnson. From Fort Johnson they moved to Troy where Mr. Schuyler was Sheriff of Rens- seler County, 1842, and engaged in mercantile pursuits. Again they removed to Ballston, N. Y., where Mr. Schuyler was a member of the Legislature and a farmer. In 1858, they were again in Troy where she died, Dec. 30, 1857.

Cornelius Cuyler Schuyler long survived his wife and lived for many years in Albany where he died, Jan. 31, 1876. Both were buried in the Hillhouse plot in the Albany Cemetery.
