

CLASS OF 1813

JOHN B. STAATS

Son of Garent Staats, a lawyer of Albany, by Gov. DeWitt Clinton as the first collector of tolls of the Erie Canal at Albany. Peter Gansevort went as his bondsman, giving security to the amount of $25,000.-- Genealogy of the Staats Family by Harold Staats 1921
p. 145.

JOHN B. STAATS, 1813, a resident of Albany, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society.
(Died: 1858)

Philomathean Catalogue 1830.

Staats John Bleeker - Union Class 1813.
Albany, N.Y. Atty. 1st Collector of Tolls on Erie Canal at Albany. Appointed on recommendation of DeWitt Clinton. Bonded for $25,000 - bond Endorsed by Gen. Peter Gansevoort.
Another brother, Cuyler, Albany Atty. died aged 25.

w.n.p. 84 -

John Bleeker Staats AB-1813

Jahn Blecher Staats

F.B.
1813