Died on Monday, December 4, 1854, in Carlisle, Pa., aged about 60 years. Mr. Thorn was admitted to Deacon's orders in the Episcopal Church, nearly forty years since, in the diocese of New-York, and to Priest's orders by Bishop White soon after; but while laboring under some idiosyncrasy many years after, connected himself with other denominations, and, for a time, absented himself from the Church of his first love; but it may afford satisfaction to his old friends to be informed, that he returned some three years since to the good old paths, and connected himself with the Protestant Episcopal Church and became a communicant of St. John's Church, Carlisle.

Quarterly Review & Church Register
Protestant Episcopal
p. 292
April, 1855.
CLASS OF 1811

J.V. E. THORN

Rector of the Episcopal Church of Carlisle, Pa., 1819-21