You will please give me instructions on this subject. If this my request should be granted on information of the fact I will immediately forward the attendant expenses.

Now your Reverent entertains my College Bills from time to time hereafter, if the last Bill however I have no notion of paying 3 months hence a Deacon - If I think it might not please in the way of my bus.

Will you be good enough to make me return soon as convenient.

Yours

W. C. Sexton
The Doomsday Book of 1806–43, states that at the time the accompanying letter was written NOAH C. SEXTON owed a bill of $29.47.
CLASS OF 1818.

NOAH C. SEXTON.

Also in April, 1824, a work of divine grace commenced under the ministration of Rev. Noah C. Sexton, progressed rapidly, and forty-eight were added, four of whom entered the ministry. (Refers to Congregational Church, Hamburg, Town of Lyme, Conn.)

Hist. of New London Co., Conn
Pt. 2 p. 540.

NOAH C. SEXTON, non-graduate of 1818 of Wilbraham, Mass., was a member of the Adelphi Society.
Adelphi Catalogue 1850

1818

NOAH C. SEXTON.

Congregational Church, Hamburg, Town of Lyme, Conn.
Also in April, 1824, a work of divine grace commenced under the ministration of Rev. Noah C. Saxton, progressed rapidly, and forty-eight were added, four of whom entered the ministry.
Hist. of New London Co., Conn. pt. 2 p. 540

1818

NOAH C. SAXTON.

Minister of the Second Church (Congregational) in Greenwich, Conn., after 1828 - p. 396.