Died:—At Schuylerville, Saratoga county, on the 21st inst., Mrs. Catharine Van Vechten, consort of Harmon Van Vechten, in the 60th year of her age. She has left a large family and a numerous circle of friends to mourn her loss.—Daily Albany Argus, July 26, 1830.
Harmon Van Vechten M.D. Class of 1813

Dr. Harmon van vechten, third son of Cornelius and Maria (Grossbeck) Van Vechten, was born June 26, 1796. He died August 30, 1873. Married Caroline Bostwick, February 1823. She was born February 16, 1800. Died June 20, 1888. They had four sons and no daughters. They lived at Havana, N.Y.

married Catherine Dorcas Roe May 8 1849 One daughter.

Walter Frederick (b. May 1 1826 d. Jan. 8 1850) single

Charles Brice (b. August 10 1831 d. )

Married Julia Ross Mitchell, Nov. 22 1858. One daughter.

Above information taken from "Genealogical Records of the Van Vechtens".

HERMAN VAN VECHTEN, 1813, a resident of Schaghticke, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society.

Philomathean Catalogue 1830.

VAN VECHTEN HARMON - Son of Cornelius V. V. and Anmitia Knickerbocker, Albany. He was born near 15, 1772 and died May 26, 1859. His wife was Catherine Wendell of Albany, whom he married Jan. 10, 1793. She was born June 24, 1772 and died July 21, 1830. Harmon lived on his farm between Coreville, and Bevis Heights - Saratoga County, later moving into Schuylerville, where he died. The children (13) were all born on the farm.

Note: Lot in this V. V. genealogy about Col. Cornelius Van Vechten and his military career.