Todd, Samuel
From: North Haven, Conn.

War 1812
No record found
America's First "Junior College", the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut. By Gleen Weaver. pp. 18-21

"The college recognized the quality of the Academy's instruction by granting third year standing to the graduates of the classical department, and during Tillotson Bronson's term as principal to Yale or Union was made with remarkable and eased frequency," (Some) examples of the transfer students........

Alpheus Geer, Ep.Ac. 1812; Union 1813
Samuel Todd Ep.Ac. 1814; Union 1816
Friend Cooke, Ep. Ac. 1817; Union 1819
Sherlock James Andrews Ep.Ac. 1819; Union 1821
CLASS OF 1816

SAMUEL TODD

Son of Dan and Lucy (Frost) Todd.

Studied law, having graduated at Union College; settled in Cinnati, Ohio, and there he married Henrietta, daughter of Judge Wallace.

He practiced law until his death which occurred some eight or nine years after leaving North Haven, Conn., leaving a wife and a daughter.

FROM The Todd Family in America
John Edwards Todd, D. D.
Press of Gazette Printing Co.

SAMUEL TODD, 1816, a resident of North Haven, Conn., was a member of the Philomathean Society.

Philomathean Catalogue 1830