To the President of Union College.

Recently I found a certificate of dismission given my great grandfather. He ^{was} ~~has~~ ^{well} ~~not~~ his last term at Union College. so has absent much and asked to be properly dismissed.

This was on May 14. 1821.

I found this paper among old letters. My grandfather's name was Lorman A. Moody. In later years he omitted the W and wrote his name Lorman.

I have in my possession a portrait of him that was painted by a Union College Graduate but do not know his name as it is not in the portrait. I may recently come into possession of this if you have listed in your files a splendid who has undertaken for and might have painted the portrait! I think it is very good.

I think I am asking a great price. but I would like to have

My dear Mrs. Thomas:

President Carter Davidson has given us your letter about your greatgrandfather, Lowman A. Moody. A search of our class of 1824, does not reveal the artist who painted your greatgrandfather's portrait. We presume that there is no signature or trace of a signature that would provide a clue if there is such a lead, we could send a list of the names of the members of 1824 for you to use in checking. We will continue to look for this artist and will send you any information that we may find.

Our search revealed very little information of a biographical nature for your greatgrandfather. We would be grateful for any information that you care to send for our permanent historical records. This material is carefully preserved in individual folders and would become a part of the archives of Union College. If you do not wish to part with family items but can give us sources such as genealogies, publications, and so forth, our committee on Alumni Records and History will be glad to copy the material.

It was good to read of your interest and we hope to hear from you again.

Sincerely,

Henry J. Swanker
Director of Alumni Relations
