

CLASS OF 1824

WILLIAM LEWIS MORRIS.

Son of Robert Morris, second son of Chief-Justice Richard and Sarah (Ludlow) Morris and Frances Ludlum, daughter of Isaac Ludlum, of Goshen, N. Y.

Born June 13, 1804

Died April 26, 1864

Married Mary E. Babcock.

Seven children.

His second son, Robert Morris, was born in New York, in 1838; graduated at Yale in 1858 and studied law. After the firing on Sumter, he enlisted in the army, serving with credit in the Civil War. He removed to San Francisco where he died November 15, 1901.

Historic Families of America p. 16
Walter W. Spooner
New York.

WILLIAM L. MORRIS, 1824, of Claverack, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society.
Philomathean Catalogue 1830 (Died: 1864)