Charles Webster

Son of Charles R. and Rachel (Skinner) Webster.
Born April 4, 1793.
Graduated from Union College in 1813; and Princeton
Theological Seminary, 1817; installed Pastor of Presbyterian Church at Hempstead, L. I., in March, 1818, where he remained for nearly twenty years. He then preached about one year at Bloomsburg, New Jersey, and November 7, 1828, was settled over the congregation at Middletown Point, (now Matteawan),
New Jersey, where he remained for ten years.
He married June 4, 1818, Jane Wilson Brant, born September
27, 1793, second daughter of Captain William and Elizabeth
Brant, of Conn. Farms, N. J.
He died December 23, 1862 at Middletown Point, N. J., aged 69; and she died at Belleville, N. J., July 14, 1866, aged 72.
Children:— (All born at Hempstead, L. I., except the last)

1. Charles Edward
2. William Henry
3. Edward
4. Elizabeth
5. Francis Nabsat
6. Theodore
7. Anna Townsend
8. Jane Wilson
9. Edgar

Charles Webster was a half-brother of Ashbel Steele Webster, Class of 1815, Matthew Henry Webster, Class of 1822 and Rochard Webster, Class of 1829.

From History & Genealogy of Gov. John Webster Family of Conn. p. 367
William Holcomb Webster & Rev. Melville Reuben Webster
Rochester, N. Y. 1915.
CLASS OF 1813

CHARLES WEBSTER

Son of Charles R. and Rachel Steele Webster, of Albany. He was long a pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Monmouth County, N. J.

History of the County of Albany p. 371
Howell & Tenney
W. W. Munsell & Co.
New York 1886.
Webster, Charles
From: Albany, N.Y.
Last residence: Middletown, N.J.

War 1812
No record found
1815-1816.

CHARLES WEBSTER, '13

From: Presbyterian Theological Seminary Catalogue

Rev. CHARLES WEBSTER, A.M., 1815, a resident of Albany, N. Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society. (Died in 1862)

Philomathean Catalogue 1850)