Wm. B. Walton

He lived at No. 7 Church St. Schuylerv. Naere in 1841-2 Schuylerv. Director Cashier Mohawk National Bank Which Bank may have detailed all of his life. Was he not the son of Jonathan Walton who was in the Boat Building & Forwarding Industry down on the Mohawks at the Rensselaer?
DIED:—At Schenectady, on the evening of the 14th inst.,
after a short illness, of congestion of the brain, William B. Walton, Cashier of the Mohawk Bank, in the 58th year of his age.

Daily Albany Argus
March 17, 1851.
(12) Walton Wm. EnGlass 1811-Ent fr Schmdy & last res there. A Banker - Died in 1854. He was cashier of the Mohawk Natl. Bank & lived at 7 Church St. (Schmdy Directory of 1841-2) J.R.B. says that he was in the "firm of DeGraff, Walton Co. bankers and forwarding merchants during the War of 1812". We wonder if it was not the father of Wm. B. Walton. - Jonathan Walton who was the member of the firm, - not Wm. B. W. The Mohawk Natl. Bank History (written) would clear this up for us.
Died:—In this city, on Friday evening, the 14th inst., after a short illness, of congestion of the brain, William B. Walton, Esq., Cashier of the Mohawk Bank, aged 56 years. His sudden and unexpected death has shed gloom over our city, for no individual, who ever lived among us, more universally beloved or more sincerely lamented. As an officer of the Bank, he was efficient, kind and obliging; but as a citizen, his character stands pre-eminent; his social qualities, his friendly disposition and suavity of manners, attracted the love and esteem of all who knew him; the needy never called on him for help in vain, for they always left his mansion with grateful hearts. Many a poor family will bewail the loss of their constant benefactor; his grave will be watered with the tears of many a mourning friend; his memory will be enshrined in their hearts, treasured up with many endearing mementos, and ever kept warm and fresh in the sweet remembrances of his many virtues. —Schenectady Reflector, March 21, 1851.

This same issue also has the Resolutions of the Directors of the Mohawk Bank of March 17th and of the Wardens and Vestrymen of St. George's Church of March 17th.
Walton Wm.B. Class 1811 - Ent for Schoddy & last res there. A Banker - Died in 1851. He was cashier of the Mohawk Nat'l. Bank & lived at 7 Church St.
(Schoddy Directory of 1841-2) J.R.B. says that he was in the "firm of DeGraff, Walton Co. bankers and forwarding merchants during the War of 1812". We wonder if it was not the father of Wm. B. Walton, - Jonathan Walton who was the member of the firm, - not Wm. B.W. The Mohawk Nat'l. Bank History (written) would clear this up for us.

William B. Walton.
Member of firm of DeGraff, Walton & Co. bankers and forwarding merchants during the War of 1812. Brother of Edward H. Walton, 1823 and H. Nelson Walton, 1826.
Son of Jonathan Walton and married Sarah Gold, daughter of Thomas Gold, at Whitesburgh, N.Y. Also, see W.B.B. slips.

1811 - Wm. B. Walton: 36 yrs; Bro: Newton & Edward;