

JAMES REMINGTON, non-graduate of 1825, was a member of the Adelpheic Society. He resided in Buffalo, N.Y. (Died: 1891)
Adelpheic Catalogue 1830

JAMES REMINGTON.

Born in Schenectady, N. Y., Aug. 28, 1799; united with the First Presbyterian Church in Buffalo, Oct. 17, 1817; graduated from Williams College in 1826; Auburn to close of Middle year; married to Miss Charlotte Evans, of Darien, N. Y., Jan. 30, 1830.

Ordained at Cayuga Creek, N. Y., by Presbytery of Buffalo, Sept. 2, 1829; Lancaster, 15 years, from 1827; Alden, 22 years, to 1867; resident at Lancaster, supplying churches as opportunity offered, 1868-79; resident South Saginaw, Mich., 1880-2; E. Saginaw, 1882.

Published some sermons.

Auburn Theological Seminary Catalogue
1883
p. 25