

Nathan Warner Union

Class of 1819.

From "Genealogy of the Hyde Family", Page 944.

Nathan, son of Jonathan and Clarina (Elliot) Warner, was born April 4 1795 at Canaan, N.Y. He graduated at Union College in 1819 and was a lawyer. He married Elizabeth Renbert of Petersburg, Ga. and they settled at Monticello, Ga., where he died April 2 1828. They had one child;

Nathan, living at Memphis, Tenn. 1858, unmarried.

NATHAN WARNER, 1819, a resident of Canaan, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society. (Died: 1827)

Philomathean Catalogue 1830

CLASS OF 1819

NATHAN WARNER

Son of Jonathan Warner, and Clarina Elliott, was born at Canaan, New York, April 4, 1795. He graduated at Union College in 1819, and was a lawyer. He married Elizabeth Rembert of Petersburg, Ga., and they settled at Monticello, Ga., where he died April 2, 1828. They had one child.

(1) Nathan, living at Memphis, Tenn., 1858; unmarried.

FROM

Hyde Genealogy

Reuben H. Walworth

J. Munsell, Albany, 1864.

Nathan Warner

1819
A7B

Nathan Warner 1819
F.B.