

1824 Lewis H. Sandford (Sanford)

Non-graduate, Hamilton College, 1824
Hamilton College Alumni Register, 1812-1922.

1824 LEWIS H. SANDFORD

MARRIED: In this city, on the 4th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Williams, pastor of the third Presbyterian church, Lewis H. Sandford, Esq., of Skaneateles, in the county of Onondaga, to Miss Laura Porter, daughter of the late doctor Alanson Porter, of Williamstown, Massachusetts.

Albany Argus

1824 LEWIS H. SANDFORD

MARRIED: In this city, on the 4th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Williams, Lewis H. Sandford, Esq., of Skaneateles, to Miss Laura Porter, daughter of the late Dr. Alanson Porter, of Williamstown, Mass.

The Microscope
Albany, N. Y.
June 6, 1829.

DEATH OF JUDGE SANDFORD.—There

was a meeting of the Bar, numerously attended, yesterday, and several addresses made eulogistic of the judicial and private character of Judge S., and resolutions adopted [see official report below] expressive of respect to his memory.

Mr. Ketchum spoke highly, too, of his religious character. For the last two years Mr. K had attended the same church with him, and could bear witness that Judge S. was a devout worshiper of that church. On all occasions he was found there with his young and interesting family—and there is hadly a point of his character which can be viewed without calling forth additional regret at his loss.

Judge Campbell stated that he did not hear of the death of Judge S. till after his return to his home in this City late Wednesday evening. I returned, said Judge C., with gratification, because I returned from my alma mater, where he and I had been to the same college, (Skaneateles) and where the faculty, on Wednesday morning, conferred upon Judge S. the degree of Doctor of Laws, not knowing that the honored graduate and distinguished Judge was at the time but dust and ashes. I returned to this City with the news without knowing that he whom his alma mater sought to honor was where human honor ceases to affect.

Mr. Brady, and other gentlemen, also spoke highly of Judge S., and of his kindness to members of the Bar, rendering an appearance before him in a case rather a pleasant interview than a source of toil. Mr. Brady also referred to the young members of the Bar, and the necessity of their having confidence and sustaining the honor and high character of the profession.

The venerable ex-Chief Justice Jones, who presided, and who was formerly one of the colleagues on the Bench with Judge S., concluded the meeting by some impressive remarks as to the character of the deceased. A Committee was appointed to obtain a bust or statue of Judge S., to be placed as a token of respect in one of the Court rooms.

At a meeting of the Bar of the City of New-York, held on the 29th day of July, inst., at the General Term Room of the Superior Court, on occasion of the death of Hon. Lewis H. Sandford, one of the Justices of the Superior Court, Hon. Samuel Jones was called to the Chair, and Seth P. Staples, Benj. F. Butler, and Marshall S. Bedwell, Esqs., were appointed Vice Chairmen; Messrs. John Slosson, and H. S. Dodge, Secretaries.

It was resolved that a Committee of five be appointed to prepare suitable resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, and William Keat, Francis B. Cutting, Robert Emmet, Charles O'Connor, and James T. Brady, Esqs., were appointed such Committee.

The Committee, by Mr. Emmet, their Chairman, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the members of the New York Bar have learned with feelings of the sincerest regret, the unexpected death of Hon. Lewis H. Sandford, once their esteemed associate in professional practice, and more recently a Judge of the Superior Court of New York.

Resolved, That in the various and multifarious labors of Judge Sandford, as a Jurist, in Courts both of law and equity, the profession has recognized with admiration his extended and profound learning, his unintermitted industry and research, his patience, courtesy and judicial integrity, which have impressed on the community an enduring recollection of his practical ability and worth, have adorned and improved the system of our jurisprudence, and left a high and honored name among the lawyers and Judges of this country. It is with saddened yet admiring reflection that we ascribe the untimely extinction of talents by which so much has been produced, and from which so much was anticipated, to trials too unremitting and sparing for a delicate constitution.

Resolved, That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for our lamented friend, and will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting do communicate these resolutions to the family of the deceased, with the assurance of our sincerest sympathy in their sudden and melancholy loss.

Resolved, That these resolutions be signed by the officers of this meeting, and published.

John Graham, Esq., moved the following as an additional resolution, which was accepted by the Committee.

Resolved, That a committee of ten be appointed to devise some suitable method of commemorating the judicial and private merits of Lewis H. Sandford.

After addresses by Robert Emmet, Hiram Ketchum, James T. Brady, A. W. Clason, Jr. and John Cochran, Esqs., and their Honors the Recorder Tilley, and Mr. Justice Campbell, the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The Chair, after responding to the resolutions, appointed as the Committee of ten mentioned in the last resolution, John Cochran, Hiram Ketchum, Henry E. Davies and John Slosson, Esqs., and His Honor the Recorder, in addition to the Committee who reported the resolutions.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

JOHN SLOSSON, } Secretaries.
H. S. DODGE, }

Sanford, Lewis Hatley

8 June 1807

oid

27 July 1852

Tolze, Ohio

Studied law at Syr, N.Y.

Admitted bar 1828

To NYC 1833

Att. vic. chan - 1st circuit 1846

Assoc Justice "regulator"

(supreme?) court

1847

To death

Age 5: 387

Want to bet it's Union? - Those names of Dublin names!

HA! It is when Campbell - grad

Union 1827

Age 1: 577