CLASS OF 1829

GERRIT LANSING OOTHOUT

Son of Abraham and Gezina (De Graff) Oothout.
He was born September 12th, 1809, graduated at Union College in 1829, studied law, but disliking it as a profession, never practiced---devoting himself much to general reading and literary matters.

Albany, N. Y.
1879.

Ripe in years and as the result of the debility caused by age, from which he has suffered for some years past, G. Lansing Oothout departed this life September 13.. He graduated in the class of '29. subsequent to his graduation he read law and was admitted to the bar, but never followed the profession. While he had sufficient means to live without engaging in active business, yet he was for a time so engaged in Michigan and subsequently in New York City. He was twice married but had no children....

CLASS OF 1829

G. LANSING OOTHOUT

Mrs. Margaret Veeder, Oothout, Schenectady, N. Y., March 10, ae. 52, wife of G. Lansing Oothout, Esq. Mrs. O., on her mother's side descended from the family of Karl Hanson Toll, who settled as an early colonist, from Holland, on the Mohawk Valley at Schenectady, and was a relative of the family of Philip R. Toll, Esq. In all the relations of life Mrs. O. was most exemplary and faithful, and had attached to herself the affectionate regard and respect of a circle of friends wide as our whole community. Though her decease had not been unexpected for many days, it came at last like the shock of a calamity that will be experienced throughout the whole city. The loss of a single true and beautiful illustration of Christian usefulness and virtue, is one that cannot be bounded by the narrow circle of one desolated home. It is felt in all.
