

A.....*EDWARD A. WARNER. 1833

Born at Canaan, N. Y.; Died Feb. 1, 1844, at Coldwater, Mich.
Entered from Canaan.....A. B. 1834; Φ B K.
Counsellor at Law. Taught and did editorial work at Marshall, Mich.
1834-36; admitted to the Bar at Marshall, 1837; practiced there one year and then settled at Coldwater, where he continued in his profession until his death.
Member Michigan Senate 1840, and re-elected 1842, and was serving at the time of his death.

E. J.
cal. 1891

Warner, E.A., 1834
Pearson Diaries V.4, p.725

1834

EDWARD A. WARNER

DIED: At Cold Water, Mich., on the 1st day of February last, very suddenly, Edward A. Warner, Attorney-at-Law, and late Senator in the State Legislature, in the 32nd year of his age. Mr. Warner was the son of James Warner, esq., of Canaan, Columbia county.

Albany Argus
March 4, 1844.

1834 EDWARD A. WARNER.

DIED: At Cold-Water, Michigan, on the 1st day of February last, very suddenly, Edward A. Warner, Attorney-at-Law, and late Senator on the State Legislature, in the 32nd year of his age, Mr. Warner was the son of James Warner, of Canaan, Columbia county.--Daily Albany Argus, March 4, 1844.

Edward A. Warner AB. 1834

Edward A. Warner ¹⁸³⁴ H.B.