CLASS OF 1820

F. H. VANDERVEER

Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Warwick, Orange county, N. Y. from December 1, 1842 until the fall of 1876, a pastorate of unusual length.

History of Orange Co. p. 586
Ruttenber & Clark

During the summer following the Rev. Ferdinand H. Van Derveer preached a number of times with particular acceptance; having signified his willingness to become the pastor, he commenced to preach regularly on Dec. 4, 1842, and was formally called December 16, and installed February 14, 1843. His long and successful ministry covered a period of almost forty years. Dr. Van Derveer was the revered and beloved father of the Warwick Church of to-day. He graduated from Union College in 1821, and from the seminary at New Brunswick in 1823. Prior to coming to Warwick, his pastorates had been at Hyde Park, New Hurley and Newburgh. He was a man of commanding presence, tall and dignified in bearing, scholarly and refined, an independent thinker, an earnest speaker, clear and logical in statement, and personally illustrated the truths he proclaimed by his holy and consistent behavior. Though a man of strong decision of character, he was peculiarly social in disposition. Dr. Van Derveer's ministry was blessed in the conversion of souls and in the sowing of seed that has borne its fruitage all the years since. The impress of his personality is distinctly seen in the congregation of to-day. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Rutgers College in 1858.

Dr. Van Derveer's pastorate closed only when the limitations of age disqualified him for the arduous duties of the pastorate, on the 11th of September, 1876. He died in the home of his son-in-law, the Rev. Thomas S. Dusinberre, at Livingstone, N. Y., July 10, 1881. Dr. Van Derveer had one daughter, who is the wife of the Rev. Thomas S. Dusinberre. Mrs. Van Derveer (nee Mary V. Gildersleeve) was a woman of rare excellence of character, and was greatly endeared to the people of the church. She died August 2, 1888.

His son, Cyrus Gildersleeve Van Derveer is a clergyman.
